(B) with full recognition of the constitutional right of either House to change the rules (so far as relating to the procedure of that House) at any time, in the same manner, and to the same extent as in the case of any other rule of that House.

(d) Any national emergency declared by the President in accordance with this title, and not otherwise previously terminated, shall terminate on the anniversary of the declaration of that emergency if, within the ninety-day period prior to each anniversary date, the President does not publish in the Federal Register and transmit to the Congress a notice stating that such emergency is to continue in effect after such anniversary.

A privileged motion to discharge a committee from further consideration of a joint resolution terminating an emergency is available after the measure has been referred to committee for 15 calendar days (Nov. 7, 2005, pp. 25133, 25134).

In the 116th Congress, the House adopted a special order of business providing for consideration of H.J. Res. 46, relating to a national emergency declared by the President on February 15, 2019, and varying the statutory procedures for consideration of any measure related to the specified emergency declaration addressed by the joint resolution (sec. 2, H. Res. 144, Feb. 26, 2019, p. ___).
