

Nomination of James F. Hoobler To Be Inspector General of the Small Business Administration

January 3, 1991

The President today announced his intention to nominate James F. Hoobler, of New York, to be Inspector General of the Small Business Administration. He would succeed Charles R. Gillum.

From 1986 to 1990, Dr. Hoobler served as Deputy Assistant Secretary of State for International Narcotics Matters at the Department of State. Prior to this, he served as senior executive for the President's Management Improvement Program at the Office of Management and Budget, 1983–1986; associate deputy administrator for planning and finance at the Veterans Administration, 1981–1983; and as the deputy chief financial officer for resource management at the Department of Energy, 1980–1981. In addition, Dr. Hoobler served as director of the program review and budget staff at the Department of Justice, 1973–1980. Dr. Hoobler was a senior program analyst in the Office of the Director at the Central Intelligence Agency.

Dr. Hoobler graduated from Kent State University (B.S., 1963) and the University of Maryland (M.A., 1967; Ph.D., 1980). He was born August 2, 1938, in Rochester, NY. He served in the U.S. Army, 1958–1961. Dr. Hoobler is married and resides in Rockville, MD.

Letter to Congressional Leaders Transmitting the 1990 Population and Apportionment Statistics

January 3, 1991

Dear Mr. Speaker: (Dear Mr. President:)

Pursuant to title 2, United States Code, section 2a(a), I am transmitting the statement showing the apportionment population for each State as of April 1, 1990, and the number of Representatives to which each State would be entitled.

The population counts set forth herein are subject to possible correction for undercount or overcount. The Department of Commerce is considering whether to correct these counts and will publish corrected counts, if any, not later than July 15, 1991.

Sincerely,

GEORGE BUSH

Note: Identical letters were sent to Thomas S. Foley, Speaker of the House of Representatives, and Dan Quayle, President of the Senate.

Statement on the House of Representatives Action on the Federal Budget Agreement

January 3, 1991

I am deeply disappointed by and disturbed about the vote taken in the House of Representatives this afternoon which is designed to undo the pay-as-you-go enforcement mechanism just legislated in the recently enacted budget agreement. The vote occurred along strictly partisan lines.

While the Democrats in the House tried to dress up their action, the inescapable point is that their purpose is to break the agreement that was negotiated and passed into law.

Changing the House rules with a purely
