

Statement on the Death of Representative Paul B. Henry
July 31, 1993

Hillary and I received the news of Congressman Paul Henry's passing with deep sadness. It's tragic when such a productive and promising life is cut short so much before its time. His personal courage and bravery will be an inspiration for us. Our thoughts and prayers are with his family.