

Message to the Congress Transmitting the Report of the Interagency Arctic Research Policy Committee
March 2, 1994

To the Congress of the United States:

Pursuant to the provisions of section 108(b) of Public Law 98-373 (15 U.S.C. 4107(b)), I transmit herewith the Fifth Biennial Report of the Interagency Arctic Research Policy Committee (February 1, 1992, to January 31, 1994).

WILLIAM J. CLINTON

The White House,
March 2, 1994.

Nomination for Ambassador to Bahrain
March 2, 1994

The President today named David M. Ransom as the United States Ambassador to the State of Bahrain.

“David Ransom’s extensive background in foreign affairs and dedicated service to the United States will be a great asset to this Nation,” the President said. “I am pleased to announce his nomination, and I look forward to his appointment.”

NOTE: A biography of the nominee was made available by the Office of the Press Secretary.

Nomination for the Federal Communications Commission
March 2, 1994

The President today announced his intention to nominate Rachelle B. Chong as a member of the Federal Communications Commission.

“I am confident that Rachelle Chong’s experience and commitment in the area of telecommunications will prove invaluable to this most important committee,” the President said. “I am happy to nominate her to the position.”

NOTE: A biography of the nominee was made available by the Office of the Press Secretary.

Appointment for the President’s Committee on Employment of People
With Disabilities
March 2, 1994

The President today announced the appointment of the Chair and Vice Chairs of the President’s Committee on Employment of People With Disabilities. Appointments include Tony Coelho as Chair of the Committee, Neil Jacobson as Vice Chair, and Karen Meyer as Vice Chair.

“I am pleased to announce these appointments,” the President said. “I believe the designation of such a dedicated and experienced group of people will provide valuable perspective to the administration and emphasize our strong commitment to the community of people with disabilities.”