

IN SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES.

FEBRUARY 1, 1821.

MR. SMITH, from the Committee on the Judiciary, to which was referred the resolution, "to inquire whether any, and, if any, what, provisions are necessary or proper to be made by law to meet contingencies which may arise from unlawful, disputed, or doubtful votes, under that part of the twelfth article of amendments to the constitution of the United States, which relates to counting the votes of the electors for President, and Vice President of the United States," made the following

REPORT:

That the committee have had the resolution under their consideration, and are of opinion that it is inexpedient at this time to legislate on this subject.
