FROM

THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES,

TRANSMITTING

A report of the Secretary of State, in reply to a resolution of the House of Representatives of the 5th instant, requiring information of any acts endangering the relations of friendship between the United States and Great Britain.

JANUARY 8, 1838.

Referred to the Committee on Foreign Affairs.

To the House of Representatives of the United States :

I herewith transmit to the House of Representatives a report from the Secretary of State, in answer to a resolution of that body dated the 5th instant.

M. VAN BUREN.

WASHINGTON, January 8, 1838.

DEPARTMENT OF STATE,

Washington, January 8, 1838.

To the President of the United States :

The Secretary of State, to whom have been referred certain resolutions of the House of Representatives, bearing date the 5th instant, the last of which requests the President "to communicate to that House any additional information in his possession of acts endangering the amicable relations between this Government and that of Great Britain, either by the subjects of Great Britain, or by our own citizens, on the Canadian frontier, and what measures have been adopted by the Executive to preserve our neutrality with said kingdom, or repel invasion from a foreign country," has the honor to report to the President, that, excepting two papers which it is understood will accompany an Executive communication to Congress to-day, all the information in the possession of this Department, as requested by the above-cited resolution, is contained in the copies of documents transmitted to the President with the report of this date, in answer to the second resolution of the series ; to which the Secretary begs leave respectfully to refer.

TRANSMITTED

A report of the Secretary of State, in reply to a resolution of the House of Representatives of the 25th instant, regarding information of any acts endangering the relations of friendship between the United States and Great Britain.

JANUARY 5, 1858

Relayed to the Committee on Foreign Affairs

To the House of Representatives of the United States:
I herewith transmit to the House of Representatives a report from the Secretary of State in answer to a resolution of that body dated the 25th instant.

M. VAN BUREN

Washington, January 5, 1858.

DEPARTMENT OF STATE

Washington, January 5, 1858.

To the President of the United States:

The Secretary of State, to whom have been referred certain resolutions of the House of Representatives bearing date the 25th instant, the last of which requires the President "to communicate to that House by a dispatch information in his possession of acts endangering the amicable relations between the Government and that of Great Britain, either by the efforts of Great Britain, or by our own citizens, on the Canadian frontier, and what measures have been adopted by the Executive to preserve our neutrality with said Kingdom or to repel invasion from a foreign country," has the honor to report to the President that, among two papers which it is understood will accompany an Executive communication to Congress to-day, all the information in the possession of the Department, as requested by the above-cited resolution, is contained in the copies of documents transmitted to the President with the report of this date, in answer to the second resolution of the said; to which the Secretary begs leave respectfully to refer.
