THOMAS TEBBS—HEIRS OF:

JANUARY 11, 1838.
Read, and laid upon the table.

Mr. Muhlenberg, from the Committee on Revolutionary Claims, made the following REPORT:

The Committee on Revolutionary Claims, to which was referred the petition of the heirs of Thomas Tebbs, report:

This case was examined at the 2d session of the 23d Congress, and unfavorably reported on. It was re-examined at the 1st session of the last Congress, and the former unfavorable report, for the reasons therein stated, adopted. As no new evidence has been submitted, the committee can find no reason to change that report; and therefore again resolve that the prayer of the petitioners ought not to be granted.

THOMAS TERRAS—HEIRS OF

January 11, 1888

Respectfully submitted,

Mr. Chairman:

The Committee on Revolutionary Claims make the following

Report:

The Committee on Revolutionary Claims, after due and mature consideration of the matter submitted to them, and after due examination of the papers and testimony submitted, report:

1. That the conditions set forth in the said claim of Thomas Terras, for Revolutionary Claims, are not sustained.

2. That the supporting evidence is insufficient to warrant a finding in favor of the claimant.

Respectfully submitted,

[Signature]

Thomas Terras, Jr.
