JACOB GREER.

JANUARY 25, 1838.
Read, and laid upon the table.

Mr. Muhlenberg, from the Committee on Revolutionary Claims, made the following

REPORT:

The Committee on Revolutionary Claims, to which was referred the petition of Jacob Greer, report:

The petitioner states that he found in a pocketbook belonging to his father-in-law, a soldier of the Revolution, "a fifty dollar bill of continental money," and asks that Congress may authorize the Treasurer to take in said bill and pay the money for it.

Neither the bill nor a description of it accompany the petition. What value was given for it is not known; neither can its actual value, at the time, be ascertained, under the circumstances stated.

The committee think the prayer unreasonable, for numerous reasons, not deemed necessary to detail. It believes the payment of all continental bills a question not proper to be even considered; a request which ought not, under any circumstances, to be granted. It is therefore

Resolved, That the prayer of the petitioner be rejected.

Thomas Allen, print.
REPORT

The Committee on Transportation continued the study made last year. [Redacted text]