IN SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES.

JANUARY 13, 1843.

Ordered to be printed.—To accompany bill H. R. 373.

Mr. Phelps submitted the following

REPORT:

The Committee on Pensions, to whom was referred the bill (No. 373) for the relief of Richard Marsh, report:

That the only service of said Marsh in the revolutionary war appears to have been rendered in capacity of a teamster attached to a foraging party. He was neither officer nor soldier, but his employment, although connected with the military service, was purely civil, and not military.

The committee are not aware of any law which bestows a pension upon persons thus employed. They therefore recommend the indefinite postponement of the bill.

Thomas Allen, print.
IN SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES

Mr. WHITE proposed the following REPORT:

The Committee on Agriculture to report their report (H.R. 327) on the subject of the annual review of the Agriculture Department's operations. This report provides an overview of the department's activities and highlights key programs and initiatives of the year. The committee also recommends legislative action to support the department's goals and objectives, emphasizing the importance of rural development, innovation, and sustainability.
