

JOSHUA WOODWARD.

MAY 9, 1850.

Laid upon the table.

Mr. WALDO, from the Committee on Revolutionary Pensions, made the following

REPORT:

The Committee on Revolutionary Pensions, to whom was referred the petition of Joshua Woodward, respectfully report:

The petitioner claims to be the only surviving son of Joshua Woodward, deceased, who was killed by a party of British, Indians, and tories, in the year 1778, while he, with a party of fourteen others, was attempting to take some wheat from the barn of a tory residing on or near Lake Champlain, in the State of New York, under the command of a Captain Sawyer. He further claims that his son, Amos Woodward, now deceased, was, in the year 1813, in the army of the United States, and was wounded by a rifle ball in the thigh, at Fort Erie, under General Brown. For these circumstances, he asks to be placed on the pension list of the United States. The committee regard these claims as too frivolous to merit a moment's serious consideration, and ask to be discharged, and recommend that the petition be laid upon the table.

JONAS WOODWARD

1860
Last seen in 1860

Mr. Wainwright, the Committee on Revolutionary Pensioners, made the following

REPORT

The Committee on Revolutionary Pensioners, in their report of the 1st of January, 1860, requested the following report:

The pensioner claims to be the only surviving son of James Wood- ward, deceased, who was killed by a party of British soldiers, and others, in the year 1780, while he was a party of soldiers others was attempt- ing to make some other claim that the name of a boy residing in or near Lake Umbagog, in the State of New York, under the command of a Captain Sawyer. He further claims that his son, James Woodward, now deceased, was in the year 1781, in the front of the United States, and was wounded by a rifle ball in the thigh, and that under General Brown, for these circumstances he ought to be placed on the pension list of the United States. The committee request these claims be investigated, and if found meritorious, a pension be granted, and the pension be paid upon the table.