N. B.—Reports from the Committees on Rules, Accounts, and Printing are acted upon as resolutions and do not appear on the list of House bills. Committees on Rivers and Harbors, Public Buildings and Grounds, Claims, and War Claims often report "Omnibus Bills" covering several single bills, but such reports appear as one only and do not have any reference to number of items or separate bills covered.

DETAILED STATEMENT OF HOUSE WORK.

The House passed during the two sessions of the Fifty-sixth Congress a total of 1,411 House bills and resolutions and a total of 793 Senate bills and resolutions, making a grand total of 2,204 bills and resolutions acted upon. It left upon its Calendar, unacted upon, 593 House bills and resolutions and 89 Senate bills and resolutions. Included in the above it passed a total of 158 House bills and resolutions which failed to become laws and 17 Senate bills and resolutions which also failed to become laws. Twenty-nine of these legislative acts failed of signature.
