

COMMISSIONED OFFICERS AND ENLISTED MEN ASSIGNED TO CLERICAL WORK IN THE WAR DEPARTMENT.

LETTER

FROM

THE ACTING SECRETARY OF WAR,

SUBMITTING

NAMES OF MEN IN THE ACTIVE OR RESERVE FORCES OF THE MILITARY ESTABLISHMENT, COMMISSIONED OR ENLISTED, WHO HAVE BEEN ASSIGNED TO CLERICAL WORK AND PLACED IN DEFERRED CLASSIFICATION BY REASON OF SUCH ASSIGN-MENT.

JANUARY 7, 1919.—Referred to the Committee on Military Affairs and ordered to be printed.

WAR DEPARTMENT,
Washington, September 27, 1918.

HON. CHAMP CLARK,
Speaker of the House of Representatives.

MY DEAR MR. SPEAKER: With reference to House resolution 390, Sixty-fifth Congress, second session, requesting the Secretary of War and the Secretary of the Navy to report to the House of Representatives the number of men (with the name and home address of each) who on June 5, 1917, were between the ages of 21 and 31 years and who since that date have been commissioned or enlisted, either in the active or in any of the reserve forces of the Military or Naval Establishments and assigned to clerical work in their respective departments, or in offices elsewhere, where such service is not directly rendered to and as a part of units of the Army and Navy employed in active or field operations, and who have received deferred classification by reason of being already in the military or naval service of the United States, I beg leave to submit to you the accompanying lists setting forth the information desired with respect to the Military Establishment.

In submitting this report I desire to call attention to the fact that the statements from the respective bureaus furnishing the information contained herein were received on various dates between June 14 and September 26, 1918, and that while the figures given are correct for the dates on which the statements were made, they can be regarded as only approximate for this date, due to subsequent changes.

Very respectfully,

BENEDICT CROWELL,
Acting Secretary of War.

The Four hundred and thirty-seventh Engineers (depot) has been a part of the operating force of the general engineer depot in the city of Washington. Two hundred and thirty-six enlisted men, members of the Four hundred and thirty-seventh engineers, were engaged on clerical work in the conduct of the depot's business. This office construes the services of men in the general engineer depot, which is supplying war material exclusively, in the subdepots at the ports of embarkation and at cantonments, and those assigned to departmental headquarters, as being rendered directly "to and as a part of the units of the Army and Navy employed in active or field operations."
