

TEMPORARY BUILDINGS OF THE AMERICAN RED CROSS

APRIL 8, 1926.—Committed to the Committee of the Whole House on the state of the Union and ordered to be printed

Mr. LUCE, from the Committee on the Library, submitted the following

REPORT

[To accompany S. J. Res. 55]

The Committee on the Library, to which was referred the resolution (S. J. Res. 55) to grant authority to continue the use of the temporary buildings of the American National Red Cross on square No. 172, Washington, D. C., having considered same report thereon favorably with the recommendation that the resolution do pass.

These temporary buildings are still required for the work of the American National Red Cross and their use should be continued until such time as funds may be raised for the erection of memorial building to commemorate services and sacrifices of women in the World War.

MEMORANDUM FOR THE DIRECTOR

Reference is made to the report of the Committee on the Library published in 1911.

The Committee on the Library published the following report in 1911:

REPORT

Presented to the Board of Trustees

The Committee on the Library, organized in 1907, has the honor to submit to the Board of Trustees this report on the progress of its work during the past year. The Committee has been very fortunate in having secured the cooperation of the various departments of the University, and in having secured the cooperation of the various departments of the University, and in having secured the cooperation of the various departments of the University.