

DISPOSITION OF USELESS EXECUTIVE PAPERS

FEBRUARY 23, 1927.—Ordered to be printed

Mr. WASON, from the Joint Select Committee on Disposition of Useless Executive Papers, submitted the following

REPORT

[On proceeds received from sales of useless papers in various departments during the first session of the Sixty-ninth Congress]

The Joint Select Committee on Disposition of Useless Executive Papers submits the following report on disposition of useless papers for the first session of the Sixty-ninth Congress:

Name of department	House Report No.	Proceeds from sales
Department of Commerce.....	1587	$189.59
Federal Board for Vocational Education.....	35	26.49
Government Printing Office.....	1480	339.94
Department of the Interior.....	353	653.98
Department of Labor ¹	649	75.31
Post Office Department.....	32	361.13
Department of State ²	740	-----
Treasury Department.....	1409	1,034.97
Total.....	-----	2,681.41

¹ Part of the papers from the Department of Labor were burned because of their confidential nature and the inadvisability of allowing them to be placed in the hands of persons outside the service.

² All of the papers of the State Department were burned because of their confidential nature and the inadvisability of allowing them to be placed in the hands of persons outside the service.