TITLE 1—RESIDENTIAL CONSERVATION SERVICE

SEC. 101. RESTATEMENT OF FINDINGS.

Section 102(a) of the National Energy Conservation Policy Act (42 U.S.C. 8201(a)) (relating to findings) is amended to read as follows:

"(a) FINDINGS.—The Congress finds that—

"(1) the United States has survived a period of energy shortage and has made significant progress toward improving energy efficiency in all sectors of the economy;

"(2) effective measures must continue to be taken by the Federal Government and other users and suppliers of energy to control the rate of growth of demand for energy and the efficiency of its use;

"(3) the continuation of this effort will permit the United States to become increasingly independent of the world oil market, less vulnerable to interruption of foreign oil supplies, and more able to provide energy to meet future needs; and

"(4) all sectors of the economy of the United States should continue to reduce significantly the demand for nonrenewable energy resources such as oil and natural gas by implementing and maintaining effective conservation measures for the efficient use of these and other energy sources."
