(3) provide that any such revenues deposited in such account would be used to retire outstanding debt obligations of the United States Government.

(b) Legislation reported pursuant to subsection (a) shall not be considered to be extraneous for purposes of section 20001 of the Consolidated Omnibus Reconciliation Act of 1985 (as amended by section 7006 of the Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act of 1986) or Senate Resolution 509 (99th Congress, 2d Session).

(b) The amounts to be realized from such sales not previously authorized by law shall not be treated as revenues, receipts, or negative outlays—

(1) for purposes of determining, in accordance with sections 301(i) and 311(a) of the Congressional Budget and Impoundment Control Act of 1974, as added by the Balanced Budget and Emergency Deficit Control Act of 1985, whether the maximum deficit amount for a fiscal year has been exceeded;

FUNDING FOR WELFARE REFORM AND MEDICARE CATASTROPHIC
INSURANCE INITIATIVES

(2)(A) The amounts available for allocation under subsection (b)(1) for funding for child care for fiscal year 1988 shall not exceed $150,000,000 of new budget authority and $110,000,000 of outlays.

If the conference report on such legislation, if any, contains levels of funding in excess of those set forth in subsection (b)(2) of this section, then upon the submission of such conference report, the Chairman of the Committee on the Budget of the Senate may file with the Senate appropriately revised aggregates. Such revised allocations and aggregates shall be considered for the purposes of such Act as allocations and aggregates contained in this resolution, and the appropriate committees of the Senate shall report revised allocations, pursuant to section 302(b) of such Act for fiscal year 1988 to carry out this section.

(c)(1) In the Senate, budget authority and outlays for fiscal year 1988 shall be allocated to the appropriate committees of the Senate to provide for the medicare catastrophic health insurance initiative, and the aggregates for fiscal years 1988, 1989, and 1990, in sections 2 and 3 of this resolution shall be adjusted accordingly, when—

(A) legislation has been reported that will, if enacted, ensure that any legislation providing for any such additional funding will not increase the deficits for fiscal years 1988, 1989, and 1990 above the levels set forth in sections 2 and 3 of this resolution; and

(B) the appropriate committees of the Senate have reported legislation that will, if enacted, make funds available for such initiative.

appropriately revised allocations under section 302(a) of the Congressional Budget Act of 1974 and revised functional levels and aggregates to carry out this section. Such revised allocations, functional levels, and aggregates shall be considered for the purposes of such Act as allocations, functional levels, and aggregates contained in this resolution, and the appropriate committees of the Senate shall report revised allocations pursuant to section 302(b) of such Act for fiscal year 1988 to carry out this section.

MEDICARE SAVINGS

SEC. 10. It is assumed that the Committee on Finance of the Senate and the Committees on Ways and Means and Energy and Commerce of the House of Representatives would achieve Medicare savings as specified in this resolution without increasing premiums or deductibles or delaying eligibility or otherwise raising beneficiary out-of-pocket costs.

SENSE OF SENATE ON INCOME TAX RATES

SEC. 11. (a) FINDINGS.—The Senate finds—

(1) the Tax Reform Act of 1986 was enacted only after nearly two years of congressional study and deliberation,

(2) the most fundamental principle of tax reform has been the reduction or elimination of special tax benefits in order to reduce tax rates for all taxpayers, and

(3) taxpayers have a right to expect Congress to hold to its promise to reduce tax rates in return for elimination of special tax benefits, rather than to use tax reform as a disguised effort to raise taxes.

(b) SENSE OF THE SENATE.—It is the sense of the Senate that the assumptions underlying the revenue levels of this budget resolution will not be achieved by either raising or delaying the individual or corporate income tax rates provided in the Tax Reform Act of 1986.

RURAL HOSPITALS MEDICARE PROGRAMS

SEC. 12. It is the sense of the Congress that, in enacting any legislation that amends the Medicare Program to reconcile its expenditures with those required under a congressional concurrent resolution on the Federal budget for fiscal year 1988 and subsequent years, there should be taken into account the special needs of rural hospitals which are not currently taken into account under the Medicare Hospital Prospective Payment System.

SECTION 302 (a) ALLOCATION IN THE HOUSE

SEC. 13. The Chairman of the Committee on the Budget of the House of Representatives may file, not later than July 1, 1987, a report in the House containing the allocations required to be made pursuant to section 302(a) of the Congressional Budget Act of 1974. The report shall be printed as, and considered to be, a report of the Committee on the Budget and such allocations made in that report shall be considered to be the allocations required to be in the joint explanatory statement accompanying this resolution.

Agreed to June 24, 1987.
