Joint Resolution

July 10, 1987
[S.J. Res. 75]

To designate the week of August 2, 1987, through August 8, 1987, as "National Podiatric Medicine Week".

Whereas the American Podiatric Medical Association celebrates its 75th anniversary in 1987;

Whereas foot-related diseases and injuries continue to plague countless Americans, millions of whom seek and require professional care each year;

Whereas basic podiatric medical research offers significant promise for the prevention and relief of numerous foot health complaints;

Whereas doctors of podiatric medicine, as the guardians of the Nation's foot health, are committed along with their medical colleagues to cost effective, high quality, comprehensive patient care; and

Whereas the American Podiatric Medical Association will hold its 75th annual meeting in Washington, D.C., during the week beginning August 2, 1987: Now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the week of August 2, 1987, through August 8, 1987, is designated as "National Podiatric Medicine Week". The President is requested to issue a proclamation calling on the people of the United States to observe such week with appropriate ceremonies and activities.

Approved July 10, 1987.
