Joint Resolution

Nov. 7, 1988
[S.J. Res. 301]

Designating January 20, 1989, as "National Skiing Day".

Whereas commercial alpine and nordic skiing operations are among the fastest growing commercial uses of the national forests;
Whereas skiing increases the recreational value of the national forests by providing a winter recreational use for such forests;
Whereas skiing is a healthful activity that promotes physical well-being, contributes to the enrichment of the human spirit, and fosters an appreciation of the outdoor environment;
Whereas skiing provides enjoyment to millions of people each winter;
Whereas skiing improves employment opportunities in, and contributes to the economic stability of, a number of States;
Whereas the people of many rural communities in the United States rely primarily on skiing for winter employment and income; and
Whereas people throughout the world can become aware of the environmental grandeur and recreational resources of the United States by skiing in the United States: Now, therefore, be it
