

Public Law 100-329
100th Congress

An Act

June 7, 1988

[S. 1988]

To amend the Merchant Marine Act, 1920, and for other purposes.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

Maritime affairs.
Transportation.

SECTION 1. (a) Section 27 of the Merchant Marine Act, 1920 (46 App. U.S.C. 883), is amended—

(1) by striking “Treasury” the first time it appears and inserting “Treasury, or the actual cost of the transportation, whichever is greater,”; and

Waste disposal.

(2) by striking “merchandise.” at the end thereof and inserting in lieu thereof the following: “merchandise: Provided further, That for purposes of this section, the term ‘merchandise’ includes valueless material: Provided further, That this section applies to the transportation of valueless material or any dredged material regardless of whether it has commercial value, from a point or place in the United States or a point or place on the high seas within the Exclusive Economic Zone as defined in the Presidential Proclamation of March 10, 1983, to another point or place in the United States or a point or place on the high seas within that Exclusive Economic Zone: Provided further, That the transportation of any platform jacket in or on a launch barge between two points in the United States, at one of which there is an installation or other device within the meaning of section 4(a) of the Outer Continental Shelf Lands Act (43 U.S.C. 1333(a)), shall not be deemed transportation subject to this section if the launch barge has a launch capacity of 12,000 long tons or more, was built as of the date of enactment of this proviso, and is documented under the laws of the United States, and the platform jacket cannot be transported on and launched from a launch barge of lesser launch capacity that is identified by the Secretary of Transportation and is available for such transportation.”.

46 USC app. 883
note.

(b)(1) For purposes of interpreting the proviso pertaining to transportation of any platform jacket by launch barge, as added by subsection (a) of this section to section 27 of the Merchant Marine Act, 1920 (46 App. U.S.C. 883), the Secretary of Transportation shall develop, maintain, and periodically update an inventory of launch barges with less than a launch capacity of 12,000 long tons that are qualified to engage in the coastwise trade. Each launch barge listed on such inventory shall be identified by its name, launch capacity, length, beam, depth, and other distinguishing characteristics. For each such launch barge, the name and address of the person to whom inquiries may be made shall also be included on the inventory. A launch barge not listed on such inventory shall be deemed not to be “a launch barge of lesser launch capacity identified by the Secretary of Transportation” within the meaning of such proviso to section 27 of the Merchant Marine Act, 1920.

(2) Not later than 15 days after the date of enactment of this Act, the Secretary of Transportation shall publish in the Federal Register an initial inventory of launch barges developed and maintained in accordance with paragraph (1) of this subsection.

Federal Register,
publication.

(3) Not later than 60 days after the date of enactment of this Act, and periodically thereafter, the Secretary shall publish in the Federal Register a current inventory of launch barges developed, maintained, and updated in accordance with paragraph (1) of this subsection.

Federal Register,
publication.

SEC. 2. Section 4370(a) of the Revised Statutes of the United States (46 App. U.S.C. 316(a)) is amended by striking the period at the end of the first sentence and inserting in lieu thereof the following: “, or to tow any vessel transporting valueless material or any dredged material, regardless of whether it has commercial value, from a point or place in the United States or a point or place on the high seas within the Exclusive Economic Zone as defined in the Presidential Proclamation of March 10, 1983, to another point or place in the United States or a point or place on the high seas within that Exclusive Economic Zone.”

Waste disposal.

SEC. 3. Notwithstanding the provisions of section 1 of this Act, a vessel may transport municipal sewage sludge if that vessel, regardless of where it was built, is documented under the laws of the United States and, on the date of enactment of this Act, that vessel—

Waste disposal.
46 USC app. 883
note.

(1) is in use by a municipality for the transportation of sewage sludge; or

(2) is under contract with a municipality for the transportation of sewage sludge.

Contracts.

SEC. 4. For purposes of the first paragraph of section 805(a) of the Merchant Marine Act, 1936 (46 App. U.S.C. 1223(a)), a vessel described in section 3(2) of this Act is not a vessel engaged in domestic intercoastal or coastwise service, but the prohibitions in the second paragraph apply to that vessel.

46 USC app. 883
note.

SEC. 5. Notwithstanding the provisions of section 1 of this Act, the Secretary of the department in which the Coast Guard is operating may issue a certificate of documentation under section 12106 of title 46, United States Code, to a vessel that—

Waste disposal.
46 USC app. 883
note.

(1) is engaged in transporting only valueless material in the coastwise trade or transporting dredged material, whether or not of value, (A) from a point or place on the high seas within the Exclusive Economic Zone as defined in the Presidential Proclamation of March 10, 1983, to a point or place in the United States or to another point or place on the high seas within such Exclusive Economic Zone or (B) from a point or place within the United States to a point or place on the high seas within such Exclusive Economic Zone;

(2) had a certificate of documentation issued under section 12105 of that title on October 1, 1987;

(3) had been sold foreign or placed under a foreign registry before that certificate was issued; and

(4) was built in the United States;

except that such certificate of documentation shall be endorsed to restrict the use of such vessel to the transportation of valueless material in the coastwise trade, and to the transportation of dredged material, whether or not of value, (i) from a point or place on the high seas within such Exclusive Economic Zone to a point or place in the United States or to another point or place on the high seas within such Exclusive Economic Zone, or (ii) from a point or place within the United States to a point or place on the high seas within such Exclusive Economic Zone.

Approved June 7, 1988.
