An Act

June 17, 1988
[H.R. 3869]

To amend the Act providing for the establishment of the Tuskegee Institute National Historic Site, Alabama, to authorize an exchange of properties between the United States and Tuskegee University, and for other purposes.

Conservation.
National parks, monuments, etc.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That section 101(a)(5) of the Act entitled "An Act to provide for the establishment of the Clara Barton National Historic Site, Maryland; John Day Fossil Beds National Monument, Oregon; Knife River Indian Villages National Historic Site, North Dakota; Springfield Armory National Historic Site, Massachusetts; Tuskegee Institute National Historic Site, Alabama; Martin Van Buren National Historic Site, New York; and Sewall-Belmont House National Historic Site, Washington, District of Columbia, and for other purposes", approved October 26, 1974 (88 Stat. 1461), is amended by striking out "(5)" and inserting in lieu thereof "(5)(A)" and by changing the semicolon to a period, deleting the word "and" thereafter, and inserting the following new subparagraph:

16 USC 461 note.

"(B) If, following the acquisition of Grey Columns, the Secretary determines that it would be in the public interest and in furtherance of efficient administration of the national historic site to do so, the Secretary may convey Grey Columns to Tuskegee University and in exchange therefor he may accept from the University properties which the Secretary deems necessary for administrative, parking, and maintenance facilities for the national historic site. As to the property between the Carver Museum and the Oaks, the Secretary may accept an easement from the University which shall limit development for the purpose of maintaining the view between the Carver Museum and the Oaks and provide for construction and maintenance by the Secretary of a public walkway from Campus Avenue to Montgomery Road. The conveyance of Grey Columns shall be made upon the express condition that the grantee shall maintain its historic integrity in accordance with the Secretary's standards on historic preservation and make the property available for public use subject to its primary purpose as the residence of the University's president. The exchange herein authorized shall be accomplished without monetary consideration to or from either party. Following such exchange, the Secretary shall cause to be published in the Federal Register a revised boundary map or other boundary description of the national historic site.".
