Joint Resolution

May 22, 1989
[S.J. Res. 58]

To designate May 17, 1989, as "High School Reserve Officer Training Corps Recognition Day".

Whereas in 1916 the Congress authorized the establishment of high school divisions of the Reserve Officer Training Corps;

Whereas hundreds of high schools across the United States, and United States operated high schools abroad, offer High School Reserve Officer Training Corps programs of the various military services;

Whereas High School Reserve Officer Training Corps programs have provided a valuable and unique learning opportunity for hundreds of thousands of high school students for almost four generations;

Whereas the programs of instruction for High School Reserve Officer Training Corps units concentrate on the development of desirable traits in its participants, such as good citizenship, leadership, teamwork, individual initiative, and pride and respect for the United States, its flag, laws, and Constitution;

Whereas the High School Reserve Officer Training Corps programs, being highly successful in developing desirable traits in its participants, have made a valuable contribution to the United States and to the education of the youth of our Nation;

Whereas it is appropriate to acknowledge and honor the contribution of the High School Reserve Officer Training Corps, and its cadets and instructors, both past and present; and

Whereas May 17, 1989, marks the seventy-third anniversary of the authorization of the High School Reserve Officer Training Corps: Now, therefore, be it
