Joint Resolution

Oct. 13, 1989
[S.J. Res. 81]

To designate the week of October 1 through 7, 1989, as "National Health Care Food Service Week".

Whereas health care food service is a vital function of the provision of care and treatment of hospitalized persons;
Whereas health care food service workers, chefs, dietitians, dietary assistants, and administrators work in concert with other health care professionals to provide the best possible patient care; and
Whereas the provision of nutrition and sustenance is an essential component of the care and recovery of hospitalized persons: Now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the week of October 1 through 7, 1989, is designated as "National Health Care Food Service Week", and the President is authorized and requested to issue a proclamation calling on the people of the United States to observe that week with appropriate ceremonies and activities.

Approved October 13, 1989.
