By the President of the United States of America

A Proclamation

Just over 50 years ago, Americans watched in helpless anguish as one of our Nation’s most beloved sports heroes died slowly and painfully of amyotrophic lateral sclerosis (ALS), an insidious, progressive disease that gradually destroys the body's nerves and muscles. Although ALS was discovered as early as 1869, the death of baseball legend Lou Gehrig was the first to generate widespread public awareness of this fatal ailment. To this day, amyotrophic lateral sclerosis is often referred to simply as "Lou Gehrig's disease."

Like the acclaimed "Iron Horse," whose outstanding career as a first baseman was cut short before the age of 37, most ALS sufferers initially experience weakness in the hands or legs as muscles waste away. Most people with the disease are likewise struck in the prime of life. ALS eventually affects the muscles that control vital functions such as respiration and swallowing, usually resulting in death within 2 to 5 years. ALS does not, however, affect the mind—its victims remain alert and mentally unimpaired.

Both an identifiable cause and a cure for ALS remain elusive. Currently, care is aimed at assisting people with ALS through the use of wheelchairs, respirators, and feeding tubes, particularly among those who outlive the average life expectancy. Because at least 5,000 people will be diagnosed with ALS this year, and because more than 300,000 people who are alive today will eventually die from the disease, rigorous scientific research on ALS continues. Scientists supported by the Federal Government's National Institute of Neurological Disorders and Stroke (NINDS) are searching for clues to the cause of ALS, as well as for more effective ways of treating the disease. Researchers hope to discover one day a means of curing or preventing ALS altogether.

Recent progress has been heartening: NINDS-supported investigators recently discovered that a gene responsible for a familial form of ALS lies somewhere on chromosome 21; still other researchers are studying chemicals known as nerve growth factors in order to learn more about the role that they play in this complex disease.

A number of private, voluntary health agencies across the country join the NINDS in supporting ALS research. In addition to promoting the work of physicians and scientists who are studying the disease, these organizations also provide a variety of services to ALS patients and their families. On this occasion, we gratefully salute all those men and women who are working to overcome ALS, and we applaud the courage and cooperation of those patients who are coping with this mysterious and painful disease.

The Congress, by Senate Joint Resolution 174, has designated May 1992 as "National Amyotrophic Lateral Sclerosis Awareness Month" and has authorized and requested the President to issue a proclamation in observance of this month.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE BUSH, President of the United States of America, do hereby proclaim May 1992 as National Amyotrophic Lateral Sclerosis Awareness Month. I encourage all Americans to observe this month with appropriate programs and activities.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand this first day of May, in the year of our Lord nineteen hundred and ninety-two, and of the Independence of the United States of America the two hundred and sixteenth.

GEORGE BUSH
Proclamation 6427 of May 1, 1992

Law and Order in the City and County of Los Angeles, and Other Districts of California

By the President of the United States of America

A Proclamation

WHEREAS, I have been informed by the Governor of California that conditions of domestic violence and disorder exist in and about the City and County of Los Angeles, and other districts of California, endangering life and property and obstructing execution of the laws, and that the available law enforcement resources, including the National Guard, are unable to suppress such acts of violence and to restore law and order;

WHEREAS, such domestic violence and disorder are also obstructing the execution of the laws of the United States, in the affected area; and

WHEREAS, the Governor of California has requested Federal assistance in suppressing the violence and restoring law and order in the affected area.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE BUSH, President of the United States of America, by virtue of the authority vested in me by the Constitution and the laws of the United States, including Chapter 15 of Title 10 of the United States Code, do command all persons engaged in such acts of violence and disorder to cease and desist therefrom and to disperse and retire peaceably forthwith.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand this first day of May, in the year of our Lord nineteen hundred and ninety-two, and of the Independence of the United States of America the two hundred and sixteenth.

GEORGE BUSH

Proclamation 6428 of May 1, 1992

By the President of the United States of America

A Proclamation

1. Section 213(h)(1) of the Caribbean Basin Economic Recovery Act (CBERA) (19 U.S.C. 2703(h)(1)), as added by section 212 of the Caribbean Basin Economic Recovery Expansion Act of 1990 (Expansion Act) (Public Law 101-382), directs the President to proclaim reductions in the rates of duty on handbags, luggage, flat goods, work gloves, and leather wearing apparel that are (1) the product of any beneficiary country, and (2) were not designated on August 5, 1983, as eligible articles for purposes of the Generalized System of Preferences (GSP) under title V of the Trade Act of 1974 (19 U.S.C. 2461, et seq.). Such goods were excluded from the duty-free treatment afforded under the CBERA by the provisions of section 213(b) of that Act.

2. Section 213(h)(2) of the CBERA provides that the duty reduction required for any such article shall (1) result in a rate that is equal to 80 percent of the rate of duty that applied to the article on December 31, 1991, except that, subject to certain limitations, the reduction may not exceed 2.5 percent ad valorem; and (2) be implemented in 5 equal annual stages with the first one-fifth of the aggregate reduction in the rate of duty being applied to entries, or withdrawals from warehouse for consumption, of the article on or after January 1, 1992.

3. Pursuant to section 213(h) of the CBERA, I have decided that certain existing duties set forth in Rates of Duty 1-General subcolumn of the Harmonized Tariff Schedule of the United States (HTS) for specified handbags, luggage, flat goods, work gloves, and leather wearing apparel should be reduced as set forth in Annex I to this proclamation. In accordance with section 213(b) of the CBERA, as amended by section 212(b) of the Expansion Act, I have decided that it is appropriate to make conforming changes in general note 3(c)(v) to the HTS and to modify the nomenclature of certain HTS subheadings, in order to reflect the tariff treatment to be accorded to such goods.

4. Section 604 of the Trade Act of 1974, as amended (19 U.S.C. 2483), requires the President, from time to time, as appropriate, to embody in the HTS the substance of the provisions of that Act, of other Acts affecting import treatment, and actions thereunder, including removal, modification, continuance, or imposition of any import restriction.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE BUSH, President of the United States of America, acting under the authority vested in me by the Constitution and the laws of the United States, including but not limited to section 604 of the Trade Act of 1974, section 213 of the CBERA, and section 212 of the Expansion Act, do proclaim that:

(1) In order to provide reductions in the Rates of Duty 1-General subcolumn duty rate applicable to certain goods which are the products of designated beneficiary countries under the CBERA, and to implement the provisions of the CBERA, as amended, the HTS is modified as provided in Annex I to this proclamation.

(2) In order to continue the schedule of duty reductions for goods originating in the territory of Canada modified by Annex I to this proclamation, pursuant to Annex 401.2 to the United States-Canada Free-Trade Agreement (the Canada FTA), the HTS is further modified as set forth in Annex II to this proclamation.

(3) In order to continue the schedule of duty reductions for products of Israel modified by Annex I to this proclamation, pursuant to Annex 1 to the Agreement on the Establishment of a Free Trade Area between the Government of the United States and the Government of Israel (the Israel FTA), the HTS is further modified as set forth in Annex III to this proclamation.

(4) Any provisions of previous proclamations and Executive orders inconsistent with the provisions of this proclamation are hereby superseded to the extent of such inconsistency.

(5)(a) Except as provided in this paragraph, the modifications made by Annex I to this proclamation shall be effective with respect to articles entered, or withdrawn from warehouse for consumption, on or after the 15th day after the date of publication of this proclamation in the Federal Register. Entries of products of countries designated as beneficiary countries for purposes of the Caribbean Basin Economic Recovery Act made after January 1, 1992, and not liquidated as of the 15th day after the date of publication of this proclamation in the Federal Register, shall, if such goods would have qualified for duty reductions under the provisions of Annex I to this proclamation, be liquidated as if entered on such 15th day.

(b) The modifications made by Annexes II and III to this proclamation shall be effective with respect to articles entered, or withdrawn from warehouse for consumption, on or after the dates set forth in such annexes.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand this first day of May, in the year of our Lord nineteen hundred and ninety-two, and of the Independence of the United States of America the two hundred and sixteenth.

GEORGE BUSH

ANNEX I

MODIFICATIONS TO THE HARMONIZED TARIFF SCHEDULE OF THE UNITED STATES (HTS) PURSUANT TO SECTION 213(h) OF THE CARIBBEAN BASIN ECONOMIC RECOVERY ACT (CBERA)

(a) Effective with respect to articles which are the product of any designated beneficiary country under the CBERA that are entered, or withdrawn from warehouse for consumption, on or after the 15th day after the date of publication of this proclamation in the Federal Register, the HTS is modified as follows:

(1) General note 3(c)(v) to the HTS is modified—

(A) by inserting, at the end of subdivision (C) of such note, the following sentence: "Whenever a rate of duty other than "Free" appears in the special subcolumn followed by the symbol "E" in parentheses, articles imported into the customs territory of the United States in accordance with the provisions of subdivision (c)(v)(B) of this note from a country or territory listed in subdivision (c)(v)(A) of this note shall be eligible for such rate in lieu of the rate of duty set forth in the "General" subcolumn."

(B) by inserting, in subdivision (D)(3) of such note, the words "except as provided in subdivision (c)(v)(F) of this note," before the word "textile:" and

(C) by inserting at the end thereof the following new subdivision (F):

"(F) Handbags, luggage, flat goods, work gloves, and leather wearing apparel, the product of any beneficiary country, and not designated on August 5, 1983, as eligible articles for purposes of the GSP, are dutiable at the rates set forth in the "Special" subcolumn of column 1 followed by the symbol "E" in parentheses."

(2) The HTS is modified as provided below, with bracketed matter included to assist in the understanding of proclaimed modifications. The following supersedes matter now in the HTS. The subheadings and superior text are set forth in columnar format, and material in such columns is inserted in the columns of the HTS designated "Heading/Subheading", "Article Description", "Rates of Duty 1 General", "Rates of Duty 1 Special", and "Rates of Duty 2", respectively.

Proclamation 6429 of May 1, 1992

By the President of the United States of America
A Proclamation

More than 200 years after the adoption of our Constitution and Bill of Rights, we Americans continue to enjoy a rich heritage of liberty under law. During this year's observance of Law Day, we celebrate that heritage with special pride, as peoples in new democracies around the world look to our Nation's founding documents—and the laws and institutions duly derived from them—as the surest guarantees of life, liberty, and property rights the world has ever known.

The American Experience demonstrates clearly how the rule of law ensures respect for the rights of individuals while establishing a solid foundation for responsible self-government. Our Constitution provides for the separation of powers within the Federal Government, including our independent judiciary, and reserves to the States, or to the people,
