[No. 34.] A Joint Resolution authorizing the Payment of certain Moneys heretofore appropriated for the Completion of the Washington Aqueduct. June 14, 1862

1860, ch. 211. Ante, p. 106.

WHEREAS by act of Congress, approved June twenty-five, eighteen hundred and sixty, there was appropriated for the completion of the Washington Aqueduct five hundred thousand dollars, to be expended according to the plans and estimates of Captain Meigs and under his superintendence; and whereas, while the work was in progress and before it was completed, Captain Meigs was removed from such superintendence, and certain parties have claims for work done and materials furnished to and for the completion of said aqueduct which have not been paid: Therefore,

Payment to Robert McIntyre and others.

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the superintendent of the Washington Aqueduct be, and he is hereby, authorized to pay to Robert McIntyre and others, according to the amount of their respective claims, for work done and materials furnished for the Washington Aqueduct, under the direction of Captain H. W. Benham and Lieutenant James St. C. Morton, such sum of money as may be necessary, not to exceed five thousand six hundred and six dollars and sixty cents, out of the sum of money heretofore appropriated as aforesaid: Provided, That no sum or sums of money shall be paid under this resolution except such as shall be certified to be just and equitable by General M. C. Meigs.

Proviso.

APPROVED, June 14, 1862.
