PRIVATE ACTS OF THE THIRTY-SIXTH CONGRESS

OF THE

UNITED STATES,

Passed at the second session, which was begun and held at the City of Washington, in the District of Columbia, on Monday, the third day of December, A. D. 1860, and ended on Monday, the fourth day of March, A. D. 1861.

JAMES BUCHANAN, President. JOHN C. BRECKINRIDGE, Vice-President, and President of the Senate. WILLIAM PENNINGTON, Speaker of the House of Representatives.

CHAP. IV. — An Act for the Relief of William A. Linn's Estate. Dec. 22, 1860.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Treasury is hereby directed to satisfy, out of any money in the treasury not otherwise appropriated, a judgment rendered by the Circuit Court, in and for the County of Saint Louis, State of Missouri, at its October term of the year eighteen hundred and fifty-seven, in favor of Thomas C. Reynolds and against the late William A. Linn, for services in defending said Linn in a suit brought against him by William H. Belcher and Charles Belcher, on account of acts done by said Linn as an officer of the United States; and also to pay to said Reynolds a like additional sum, in satisfaction of his demand in another suit brought by him in the Saint Louis Court of Common Pleas in and for said County of Saint Louis, against said Linn, and now pending against said Linn's administrator for other like services in defending said Linn.

Judgment against estate of William A. Linn to be satisfied.

Thomas C. Reynolds to be paid.

APPROVED, December 22, 1860.

CHAP. VI. — An Act for the Relief of Lieutenant George L. Hartsuff, United States Army. January 5, 1861

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of War be, and he is hereby, authorized and directed to pay, out of any money in the treasury not otherwise appropriated, to Lieutenant George L. Hartsuff, acting assistant commissary of subsistence, United States Army, the sum of three hundred and eighty dollars, lost by wreck of steamer "Lady Elgin," it being the amount of public funds he had in his possession while travelling under orders on board of said steamer, in the month of September, eighteen hundred and sixty, which sum he subsequently paid over to his successor, in order to balance his accounts on the books of the Treasury Department.

$380 to be paid to George L. Hartsuff for public funds lost by accident.

APPROVED, January 5, 1861.
