CHAP. CVII.—An Act for the Relief of Lewis Warrington, Paymaster, United States Navy. March 2, 1861.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the proper accounting officers of the Treasury be, and they are hereby, authorized and directed, in the settlement of the accounts of Lewis Warrington as Paymaster of the Pensacola Navy Yard where the proper vouchers cannot be produced, to receive and allow statements verified by his oath, of expenditures or losses incurred in consequence of the forcible seizure and detention of the papers and property of the government at said yard by the military of the State of Florida: Provided, That the Secretary of the Navy shall be satisfied that said Warrington's vouchers are improperly withheld from him.

Accounts of Lewis Warrington, how to be settled.

APPROVED, March 2, 1861.

CHAP. CVIII.—An Act for the Relief of Commander Thomas J. Page, United States Navy. March 2, 1861.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the proper accounting officers of the Treasury be authorized and directed to allow to Commander Thomas J. Page, of the United States navy, in the adjustment of his accounts as purser of the United States steamer Water Witch, credit for certain suspended items of said accounts, not to exceed the sum of three hundred and fifty-four dollars and forty-six cents.

Certain suspended items in the accounts of Thomas J. Page as purser to be allowed.

APPROVED, March 2, 1861.

CHAP. CIX. — An Act for the Relief of Hockaday and Ligget.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the sum of forty thousand dollars be allowed to Hockaday and Ligget, in full payment for damages sustained by them in reduction of pay for carrying the mails on route number eight thousand nine hundred and eleven, and that said amount be paid to William Ligget for and on account of Hockaday and Ligget, and for their benefit, out of any moneys in the Treasury of the United States not otherwise appropriated.

$40,000 to be paid Hockaday and Ligget for damages.

[Signed] WM. PENNINGTON,
Speaker of the House of Representatives.

[Signed] JOHN C. BRECKINRIDGE,
Vice-President of the United States and President of the Senate.

Endorsed by the PRESIDENT:

"Received, Saturday, February 16, 1861."

AUTHENTICATED U.S. GOVERNMENT INFORMATION GPO