same shall not exceed the sum of eight thousand five hundred dollars, to be paid out of any money in the Treasury of the United States not otherwise appropriated.

APPROVED, August 3, 1861.

CHAP. LXVII. — An Act authorizing the Secretary of War to pay the Volunteers, who, under the Command of Charles W. White, and by Order of Brigadier-General T. A. Morris, enlisted to protect the Railroad Bridges and other Property, in the Vicinity of Oakland, Alleghany County, Maryland.

August 6, 1861.

Certain volunteers in Alleghany county, Maryland, to be paid.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of War be, and he is hereby, authorized and directed to pay, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, the commissioned officers, non-commissioned officers, musicians, and privates who served as a Home Guard for the protection of the railroad bridge and other property, near Oakland, Alleghany County, Maryland, under command of Captain Charles W. White, and were called into service by order of Brigadier-General T. A. Morris, and to make to them just and reasonable compensation for the failure of the officer of the Government of the United States to furnish to them rations, clothing, and other supplies during their service: Provided, the amount to be paid shall not exceed the amount to which, for similar service, and like rations, clothing, and supplies, volunteers, regularly mustered into service under the President's proclamation of May third, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, would be equitable entitled.

Proviso.

APPROVED, August 6, 1861.

CHAP. LXVIII. — An Act to provide for the Payment of Arnold and Willett for Bread, and Henry North, for Wood, supplied to the United States Volunteers in Maryland.

August 6, 1861.

Accounts of G. W. Arnold, Charles S. Willett, and Henry North, to be settled.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of War be, and he is hereby, authorized to cause the account of G. W. Arnold and Charles S. Willett, for bread, and the account of Henry North, for wood, furnished to the United States volunteers in the State of Maryland to be audited and adjusted on terms of equity and justice.
