Indian service in Dakota Territory.

Indian Service in Dakota Territory. — For the general incidental expenses of the Indian service in Dakota Territory, presents of goods, agricultural implements, and other useful articles, and to assist them to locate in permanent abodes and sustain themselves by the pursuits of civilized life, to be expended under the direction of the Secretary of the Interior, twenty thousand dollars.

Delivery of provisions to Indians in Utah superintendency.

For the transportation and necessary expenses of delivery of provisions to the Indians within the Utah superintendency, for the fiscal year ending June thirtieth, eighteen hundred and sixty-seven, twenty-two thousand five hundred dollars.

Special agent for Winnebago, &c. Indians.

For salary of a special agent to take charge of Winnebago and Pottawatomie Indians now in the State of Wisconsin, one thousand five hundred dollars.

Funds and moneys to be appropriated according to stipulations of treaty or provisions of law.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That no funds belonging to any Indian tribe with which treaty relations exist shall be applied in any manner not authorized by such treaty, or by express provisions of law, nor shall money appropriated to execute a treaty be transferred or applied to any other purpose, unless expressly authorized by law.

Appropriation for payment of supplies to destitute Indians of Southern superintendency, for removal and relief of destitute.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That there be, and is hereby, appropriated, out of any money in the treasury not otherwise appropriated, the sum of five hundred thousand dollars for the payment of supplies already furnished to the destitute Indians of the Southern superintendency, for removing them to their homes, and for relieving such destitute persons among said Indians as are in actual want and suffering: Provided, That no part of the money hereby appropriated shall be paid until a full examination shall be made by the Secretary of the Interior and the first comptroller of the treasury, and they shall ascertain that the money is justly and equitably due under contracts made and executed in entire good faith and for necessary supplies actually delivered to the Indians as aforesaid, at reasonable prices; and for this purpose the comptroller is hereby authorized to take testimony and state the amount due said contractors upon principles of equity; and no money shall be paid or allowed on account of supplies furnished after the passage of this act.

Full examination to be made before money is expended, &c.

Certain citizens may trade with Indians on giving bond.

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, That any loyal person, a citizen of the United States, of good moral character, shall be permitted to trade with any Indian tribe upon giving bond to the United States in the penal sum of not less than five nor more than ten thousand dollars, with at least two good securities, to be approved by the superintendent of the district within which such person proposes to trade, or by the United States district judge or district attorney for the district in which the obligor resides, renewable each year, conditioned that such person will faithfully observe all the laws and regulations made for the government of trade and intercourse with Indian tribes, and in no respect violate the same:

Conditions.

Proviso.

Provided, That the laws now in force regulating trade and intercourse with Indian tribes, affecting licensed traders, and prescribing the powers and duties of the commissioner of Indian affairs, superintendents, agents, and sub-agents in connection therewith, shall be continued in force and apply to traders under this provision, except as herein otherwise provided.
