CHAP. CCIII. — An Act for the Settlement of the Account of Captain E. M. Buchanan, late Commissary of Subsistence of Volunteers. July 1, 1870.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the accounting officers in the third auditor's office of the Treasury Department be, and they are hereby, authorized to settle the account of Captain E. M. Buchanan, late commissary of subsistence of volunteers, as they shall believe to be just and equitable upon all testimony that may be submitted, claiming credit for the sum of one thousand four hundred and thirty-six dollars and eighty-nine cents, the amount which is alleged to have been upon his body when murdered by guerrillas on the twenty-eighth day of September, eighteen hundred and sixty-four, near Charlestown, Virginia.

Account of Capt. E. M. Buchanan to be settled.

APPROVED, July 1, 1870.

CHAP. CCIV. — An Act for the Relief of Thomas Henderson. July 1, 1870.

Be it eaacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That Thomas Henderson, of Wayne county, Michigan, his heirs or assigns, be entitled to enter at the proper land office, where the same lies, the back concession of front concession number two hundred and fifty-nine, in the township of Ecorce, in said Wayne county, containing eighty acres, more or less, at the sum of two dollars and fifty cents per acre, embracing the improvements made upon said back concession by said Henderson under a claim of pre-emption, the same to be surveyed and laid off by the surveyor-general at the expense of said claimant, and to be patented to him, his heirs or assigns, on full payment being made: Provided, That this act shall not affect the valid claim of any other person to said land.

Thomas Henderson may enter certain lands in Wayne county, Michigan.

Proviso.

APPROVED, July 1, 1870.

CHAP. CCV. — An Act to relieve Henry A. Badham from the legal and political Disability imposed by the fourteenth Amendment of the Constitution of the United States. July 1, 1870.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, (two thirds of each House concurring therein,) That all legal and political disabilities imposed by the fourteenth amendment of the constitution of the United States, by reason of participation in the late rebellion, be, and they hereby are, removed from Henry A. Badham, of Alamance county, in the State of North Carolina.

Henry A. Badham relieved of legal, &c. disabilities.

APPROVED, July 1, 1870.

CHAP. CCVI. — An Act to amend an Act entitled "An Act to remove the Charge of Desertion from certain Soldiers of the second North Carolina mounted Infantry," approved March twenty-six, eighteen hundred and sixty-nine. July 1, 1870.

1869, ch. 4.

Ante, p. 603.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That an act entitled "An act to remove the charge of desertion from certain soldiers of the second North Carolina mounted infantry," approved March twenty-six, eighteen hundred and sixty-nine, is hereby amended to include the following named soldiers of the second North Carolina mounted infantry: company A, George W. Biggs; company C, John Brooks, Hiram B. Riddle; company D, Henry R. Cook, William D. Sexton; company E, George W. Hensly, William Loomy, James Holland, George Norton, Armstrong Harris; company F, John L. Swaynegame, James L. Sentell, John E. Sentell, Thomas M. Stewart, William P. Kilpatrick, James L. Evans, William W. Hamlin, Robert F. Orr, John Kelly; company H, Merritt R. Heatherly, Robert D. Walker, Lynch Young.

Charge of desertion removed from certain soldiers of the 2d North Carolina mounted infantry.

APPROVED, July 1, 1870.

AUTHENTICATED U.S. GOVERNMENT INFORMATION GPO