CHAP. CLXXII. — An Act for the Relief of James J. Hiles, late a Private in the third Missouri Cavalry. March 3, 1871.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That, from any money appropriated for the payment of bounties, there shall be paid to James J. Hiles the sum of one hundred dollars, being extra bounty due him as provided by the act of July twenty-eighth, eighteen hundred and sixty-six, he having served the term of three years and four days as a private in the third Missouri cavalry, and been honorably discharged therefrom. Payment of extra bounty to James J. Hiles.

Approved, March 3, 1871.

CHAP. CLXXIII. — An Act for the Relief of Nancy S. Ledford. March 3, 1871.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Interior be, and he is hereby, authorized and directed to place on the pension roll, subject to the provisions and limitations of the pension laws, the name of Nancy S. Ledford, widow of Christopher M. Ledford, late a private in company F, second North Carolina mounted infantry, and pay her a pension at the rate of eight dollars per month, commencing from the passage of this act, with such further allowance as is provided by law for her children under sixteen years of age; and in the event of the death or remarriage of said widow, the pension hereby granted her shall continue to her children under sixteen years of age by her said husband, until they severally attain that age. Pension to Nancy S. Ledford.

CHAP. CLXXIV. — An Act granting Relief to Martha J. Willey. March 3, 1871.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Interior be, and he is hereby, authorized and directed to pay, subject to the provisions and limitations of the pension laws, Martha J. Willey, widow of George Willey, late a private in company F, seventh New Hampshire volunteers, the sum to which she would have been entitled, on account of her child under sixteen years of age, had she obtained her pension under the general law, instead of by the special act of May twenty-two, eighteen hundred and sixty-six. Pension to Martha J. Willey. 1866, ch. 94. Vol. xiv. p. 586.
