RESOLUTIONS.

[No. 10.] A Resolution for the Relief of Richard P. Hammond. Jan. 23, 1871.

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Treasury is hereby authorized and directed to credit upon the judgment obtained by the United States against Richard P. Hammond, or against L. Maynard and the estate of the late J. S. Folsom, deceased, as sureties on the official bond of Richard P. Hammond, late collector of customs at San Francisco, in the circuit court of the United States for the tenth circuit, the sum of eighty-six thousand seven hundred and ninety-three dollars and nine cents; and that said credit be allowed and computed as of the date of the expenditures thereof by said Hammond, the corresponding credits being allowed said sureties for interest as may have been charged against them in the judgment; and also to take and state on account as between the said sureties and the United States: Provided, That the sum allowed shall be applied first towards the indebtedness of said principal not secured by the bond of said sureties, and any balance may be applied upon the sum thus secured.

Credit to be allowed on judgment against principal and sureties upon bond of Richard P. Hammond.

Proviso.

APPROVED, January 23, 1871.

[No. 11.] Joint Resolution for the Relief of Charles P. Elgin. Jan. 23, 1871.

Be it resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Treasury be, and he is hereby, authorized to draw his warrant upon the treasurer of the United States for such an amount as may be found due to Charles P. Elgin, late assistant assessor of internal revenue for the fifteenth division of the third district of Mississippi, upon the adjustment of his accounts by the accounting officers of the treasury, without regard to his omission to qualify according to law for the duties of his appointment.

Payment to Charles P. Elgin.

APPROVED, January 23, 1871.

[No. 12.] Joint Resolution providing for the Payment of James T. Elliott, late a Private of the eleventh Michigan Infantry, for Services as extra Duty Clerk. Jan. 24, 1871.
