CHAP. CLXVIII. — An Act authorizing the First National Bank of Watkins, New York, to change its Location and Name. Feb. 19, 1873.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America, in Congress assembled, That the First National Bank of Watkins, now located in the village of Watkins, county of Schuyler, and State of New York, is hereby authorized to change its location to the village of Penn Yann, in the county of Yates, in said State. Whenever the stockholders, representing three-fourths of the capital stock of said bank, at a meeting called for that purpose, determine to make such change, the president and the cashier shall execute a certificate, under the corporate seal of said bank, specifying such determination, and shall cause the same to be recorded in the office of the comptroller of the currency, and thereupon such change of location shall be effected, and the operations of discount and deposit of said bank shall be carried on in the village of Penn Yann aforesaid. First National Bank of Watkins, New York, may change its location and name.

SEC. 2. That nothing in this act shall be so construed as in any manner to release the said bank from any liability or affect any action or proceeding in law in which the said bank may be a party or interested. Rights and liabilities not affected.

SEC. 3. That whenever the location of the said bank shall have been changed from the village of Watkins to the village of Penn Yann in accordance with the first section of this act, its name shall be changed to "First National Bank of Penn Yann," and all debts, demands, liabilities, rights, and powers belonging to said First National Bank of Watkins, shall devolve upon and inure to the First National Bank of Penn Yann; and all actions pending by or against said First National Bank of Watkins may be prosecuted by or against the First National Bank of Penn Yann in the same manner and with the same effect as if such change of location and name had not been made. New name.

SEC. 4. That as soon as such change of name and location shall have been made, public notice thereof shall be given by publication in a weekly newspaper in both said village of Watkins and said village of Penn Yann for four weeks successively. Change of name and location to be published.

SEC. 5. That this act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage. When act takes effect.

APPROVED, February 19, 1873.

CHAP. CLXIX. — An Act to provide for the Payment for certain Property taken by the Government for the Extension of the military Reservation at Camp Mohave, in the Territory of Arizona. Feb. 19, 1873.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the sum of fourteen thousand two hundred and nineteen dollars is hereby appropriated, out of any money in the treasury not otherwise appropriated, to be paid under the direction of the Secretary of War, to the claimants for private property taken by the government in the extension of the military reservation at Camp Mohave, in the Territory of Arizona, under general orders number seventy-four, adjutant-general's office, November second, eighteen hundred and sixty-nine, said sum being the total amount awarded by a board of military officers convened by proper authority at said camp in September, eighteen hundred and seventy, as per their report duly approved by the War Department. Appropriation to pay for property taken to extend the military reservation at Camp Mohave.

APPROVED, February 19, 1873.
