PRIVATE ACTS OF THE FORTY-SECOND CONGRESS

OF THE

UNITED STATES,

Passed at the Third Session, which was begun and held at the City of Washington, in the District of Columbia, on Monday, the second day of December, A. D. 1872, and was adjourned without day on Tuesday the fourth day of March, A. D. 1873.

Ulysses S. Grant, President. Schuyler Colfax, Vice-President, and President of the Senate. James G. Blaine, Speaker of the House of Representatives.

CHAP. III. — An Act for the Relief of John Black, late Consul of the United States at the City of Mexico. Dec. 13, 1872.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Treasury is hereby authorized and directed to pay to John Black, late consul of the United States at the city of Mexico, the rate of compensation allowed by law to a secretary of legation, for his diplomatic services to the United States in Mexico during the suspension of diplomatic intercourse between Mexico and the United States, from the fifteenth day of September, eighteen hundred and fifty-eight, to the fifteenth day of April, eighteen hundred and fifty-nine, inclusive. Payment to John Black.

Approved, December 13, 1872.

CHAP. VI. — An Act to authorize the proper accounting Officers of the Treasury to settle with F. M. Cordeiro. Dec. 17, 1872.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the proper accounting officers of the treasury are hereby authorized and directed to settle with F. M. Cordeiro for his services as acting consul of the United States at the port of Rio de Janeiro, from the time when Henry E. Milford ceased to be vice-consul to the time when Charles T. Thweatt assumed the duties of consul during the year eighteen hundred and seventy, and to allow said F. M. Cordeiro compensation for said period of time at the rate now allowed by law to a United States consul at said port; and the sum so allowed shall be paid from the appropriation for salaries of consuls. Payment to F. M. Cordeiro.

Approved, December 17, 1872.

CHAP. VII. — An Act to remove the Disabilities of Lucius Q. C. Lamar, of Mississippi. Dec. 17, 1872.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, (two-thirds of each house concurring therein,) That all disabilities imposed by reason of the third section of the fourteenth amendment to the Constitution of the United States of America, upon Lucius Q. C. Lamar, of the county of Lafayette, in the State of Mississippi, by reason of his participation in the late rebellion, be, and the same are hereby, removed. Disabilities of Lucius Q. C. Lamar removed.

Approved, December 17, 1872.
