

CHAP. 211.—An act to supply an omission in the enrolment of the deficiency bill approved March third, 1875. July 19, 1876.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the proper accounting officers of the Treasury, in settling and adjusting the revenue, disbursing, and other accounts of James Atkins, late collector of internal revenue for the fourth district of Georgia, are hereby directed to credit said Atkins with the sum of fourteen thousand eight hundred and nineteen dollars and thirty-three cents, on account of loss of that amount by default of deputies in his employ, the amount being lost without neglect or fault of said Atkins.

Credit in accounts of James Atkins.

Approved, July 19, 1876.

CHAP. 215.—An act for the relief of the family of the late John T. King and of L. B. Cutler. July 19, 1876.

Whereas John T. King, lately employed as a carpenter and cabinet-maker about the Capitol, while in the discharge of his duties, was killed by an explosion of gas in the closet under the eastern stairway of the Senate, leaving a wife, three children, two grandchildren, and a mother-in-law without any means of support; and Preamble.

Whereas L. B. Cutler, principal assistant in the folding-room of the Senate, was so injured, at the same time and under the same circumstances, as to be disabled for life, leaving a wife without means of support, and a mother to whose support he has partly contributed: Therefore,

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the sum of three thousand dollars for the aid and support of the family of the late John T. King, and the further sum of three thousand dollars for the aid and support of L. B. Cutler, is hereby appropriated, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to be paid to the Secretary of the Interior in trust for the above mentioned purposes, who may, at his discretion, pay the same to the respective parties in annual installments, or all in one payment, or invest the same for their use and benefit, as he may think most expedient.

Appropriation for aid to family of John T. King and L. B. Cutler.

Approved, July 19, 1876.

CHAP. 216.—An act for the relief of Anderson J. Smith

July 19, 1876.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Paymaster-General of the Army be, and he is hereby, directed to pay to Anderson J. Smith late of Company A, one hundred and thirtieth regiment of Illinois Volunteer Infantry, the pay and allowances of an assistant surgeon in the Army from May sixth, eighteen hundred and sixty four, to the date of his muster-out of service, on the seventeenth day of June eighteen hundred and sixty-five, deducting whatever pay he received for said term as sergeant; and that such payment shall be made out of any money appropriated for the pay of the Army.

Payment to A. J. Smith.

MILTON SAYLER,

Speaker of the House of Representatives pro tempore

T. W. FERRY

President of the Senate pro tempore

Received by the President July 7, 1876.
