CHAP. 229.—An act to remove the political disabilities of G. T. Beauregard, of New Orleans, Louisiana. July 24, 1876.

Political disabilities of G. T. Beauregard.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, (Two-thirds of each House concurring therein) That all political disabilities imposed upon G. T. Beauregard, of New Orleans, Louisiana, by the fourteenth amendment of the Constitution of the United States, by reason of participation in the rebellion, are hereby removed.

Approved, July 24, 1876.

CHAP. 230.—An act for the relief of George T. Olmstead junior. July 24, 1876.

George T. Olmstead, jr., may be reappointed a captain in the Army.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the President be, and hereby is, authorized to reappoint George T. Olmstead, junior, late a captain of the second regiment of artillery, United States Army, a captain in the Army, and to duly commission him as the same.

SEC. 2. That nothing in this act contained shall be so construed as to authorize said Olmstead to receive any pay or allowances for any time that he has not been in the actual service of the United States.

Approved, July 24, 1876.

CHAP. 231.—An act for the relief of H. P. Jones and Company. July 25, 1876.

Payment to H P. Jones, P. B. Ruffin, and James F. Cain.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Treasury be, and he is hereby, authorized and instructed to pay to H. P. Jones, P. B. Ruffin, and James F. Cain, trading as H. P. Jones and Company, the sum of two hundred dollars and ten cents, being the amount of drawback of tax due to them on certain tobacco exported by them.

SEC. 2. That this act shall be in force from and after its passage.

Approved, July 25, 1876.

CHAP. 232.—An act for the relief of Albert W. Preston July 25, 1876.

Albert W. Preston restored to rank of colonel on the retired-list of Army.

1875, ch. 178, 18 Stat., 512.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That Albert W. Preston, who was, on December fifteenth, eighteen hundred and seventy, duly retired from the active service, and placed upon the list of retired officers of the United States Army, with the full rank of colonel, on account of wounds received in battle while performing the duties of colonel in command of his regiment, be, and hereby is, excepted and relieved from the operations of the act of Congress entitled "An act for the relief of General Samuel W. Crawford, and to fix the rank and pay of retired officers of the Army," approved March third, eighteen hundred and seventy-five, solely because the injuries received by him in battle are more severe, dangerous, and disabling, and more fully incapacitate and disqualify him for any service, than the loss of an arm or leg, or the permanent disability of an arm or leg by resection and is hereby restored upon the list of retired officers of the Army, to the full rank of colonel, held by him from the date of his retirement, up to March third eighteen hundred and seventy-five, with the pay of such rank from the date of the passage of this act, and shall hereafter hold and receive the rank and pay of colonel upon the list of retired officers of the Army.
