CHAP. 250.—An act to amend the sixth sub-division of section thirty-two hundred and forty-four of the Revised Statutes of the United States.

June 16, 1880.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the sixth sub-division of section thirty-two hundred and forty-four of the Revised Statutes be amended by adding thereto as follows:

R. S. 3244, sixth subdivision amended.

"Provided further, That dealers in leaf-tobacco (other than retail dealers as defined in the seventh sub-division of the section) who do not deal in leaf tobacco otherwise than to sell, or offer for sale, or consign for sale on commission, to an amount not exceeding twenty five thousand pounds in any one special-tax year, only such leaf-tobacco as they purchase or receive in the hand directly from farmers or planters who have produced the same on land owned, rented, or leased by them, or received the same as rent from their tenants, who have produced the same on such land, shall each be required to pay for carrying on such business a special tax of five dollars only. If any person who has paid such special tax shall be found to have purchased or received and sold, or consigned for sale on commission, more than twenty-five thousand pounds of leaf-tobacco, such as is herein provided for, in any one special-tax year, the Commissioner of Internal Revenue is authorized and directed to assess such person an amount of tax equal to the difference between the special tax paid by him and the special tax of twenty-five dollars hereinbefore imposed upon a dealer in leaf tobacco".

CHAP. 251.—An act to carry into effect the second and sixteenth articles of the treaty between the United States and the Great and Little Osage Indians, proclaimed January twenty-first, eighteen hundred and sixty-seven.

June 16, 1880.

Whereas, by the act for the admission of the State of Kansas into the Union, approved January twenty-ninth, eighteen hundred and sixty-one, the United States granted to said State the sixteenth and thirty-sixth sections "of evry township of public lands in said State", but especially provided that the lands embraced within the Indian reservations in said State should not be alienated for any purpose, except with the consent of the Indians of such reservations, and in accordance with the conditions of the treaty authorizing such alienation; and Preamble.

Whereas, by the treaty between the United States and the Great and Little Osage Indians, proclaimed January twenty-first, eighteen hundred and sixty-seven, a trust was created for the disposal of the lands of said Indians in the State of Kansas, the metes and bounds of which said lands are specifically set forth in said treaty, by which the United States bound itself to survey and sell any and all of such lands, "at a price not less than one dollar and twenty-five cents per acre, as other lands are
