CHAP. 18.—An act authorizing the Blue Hill National Bank of Dorchester, Massachusetts, to change its location and name.

Blue Hill National Bank.
Change of name and location.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Blue Hill National Bank of Dorchester, now located in Boston, in the commonwealth of Massachusetts, is hereby authorized to change its location to the town of Milton, in the county of Norfolk, in said commonwealth, whenever the stockholders representing two-thirds of the capital stock of said bank, at a meeting for that purpose, determine to make such change; and the president and cashier shall execute a certificate under the corporate seal of the bank, specifying such determination, and shall cause the same to be recorded in the office of the Comptroller of the Currency; and thereupon such change of location shall be effected, and the operations of discount and deposit of said bank shall be carried on in the said town of Milton.

SEC. 2. That nothing in this act contained shall be so construed as in any manner to release the said bank from any liability, or affect any action or proceeding in law in which said bank may be a party or interested; and when such change shall have been determined upon as
