

21 Stat., 71.

tended to the fifteenth day of June, subject to the restrictions and provisions of the act of Congress approved April sixth, anno Domini eighteen hundred and eighty, entitled: "An act for protection of the Potomac fisheries in the District of Columbia, and for the preservation of shad and herring in the Potomac River." And this resolution shall apply to the year eighteen hundred and eighty-two only.

Approved, June 7, 1882.

June 10, 1882. [No. 34.] JOINT RESOLUTION expressive of the sympathy of the government and people of the United States upon the death of General Garibaldi.

Expression of sympathy of government and people of United States upon death of General Garibaldi.

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Congress in common with the people of the United States has received with profound grief the tidings of the recent death, at Caprera, of the distinguished Italian patriot Guiseppe Garibaldi, who formerly found a grateful asylum within the hospitality of this government.

That the Congress expresses its high appreciation of the loyalty and unselfish patriotism, of the love of human rights, unlimited by language or nationality, and of that devotion to the principle of fraternity among nations, which characterized the historical career and the great services of General Garibaldi; and avows its deep sympathy with the friendly nation which has been bereaved, and to whose unity and glory he so greatly contributed.

President to communicate copy of resolution to Government of Italy.

That the President be requested to cause a copy of this resolution to be communicated to the Government of Italy.

Approved, June 10, 1882.

June 27, 1882. [No. 36.] JOINT RESOLUTION making an appropriation to continue the work of observation and exploration in the Arctic Seas.

Work of observation and exploration in Arctic Seas.

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That for continuing the work of scientific observation and exploration on or near the shores of Lady Franklin Bay, and for transportation of men and supplies to said location and return, and for continuing the work of scientific observation at Point Barrow, Alaska, during the fiscal year ending June thirtieth, eighteen hundred and eighty-three, there is hereby appropriated, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, the sum of thirty-three thousand dollars, the same to be immediately available.

Appropriation.

Approved, June 27, 1882.

June 30, 1882. [No. 38.] JOINT RESOLUTION to provide temporarily for the expenditures of the Government.

Provision, temporarily, for expenditures of the government.

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That all appropriations for the necessary operations of the Government under existing laws which shall remain unprovided for on the thirtieth day of June, eighteen hundred and eighty-two, be, and they are hereby, continued and made available for a period of twenty days from and after that date, unless the regular appropriations therefor provided for in bills now pending in Congress, shall have been previously made for the service of the fiscal year ending June thirtieth, eighteen hundred and eighty-three; and in case the appropriations, or any of them, hereby continued, are or is, insufficient to carry on the said necessary operations, a sufficient amount is hereby appropriated, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to carry on the same: Provided, That no greater amount shall be expended therefor than will be in the same proportion to the appropriations of the fiscal year eighteen hundred and eighty-two, as twenty days

Provisos.
