[No. 39.] JOINT RESOLUTION authorizing the Secretary of War to erect at Washington's Headquarters in the city of Newburgh, New York, a memorial column and to aid in defraying the expenses of the Centennial Celebration to be held at that city in the year eighteen hundred and eighty-three.

July 1, 1882.

Whereas, it is in contemplation by citizens of Newburgh, State of New York to commemorate the proclamation of peace, the disbandment of the Army, and other notable Revolutionary events by appropriate centennial ceremonies, to be held at Washington's Headquarters, in said city of Newburgh, during the year eighteen hundred and eighty-three; and Memorial column at Washington's Headquarters, Newburgh, N. Y., etc.

Preamble.

Whereas, the events in question, forming as they did the closing scenes in the struggle for independence, are in every respect worthy of being commemorated and should be perpetuated by the erection of some suitable memorial structure; and

Whereas, it was near this place, in the log building known as "The Temple," that Washington by his appeal to the patriotism of the Army saved the country from military despotism; and

Whereas, it is intended to purchase the grounds upon which the Temple stood, together with so much of the surrounding land as may be deemed necessary, and cause to be erected thereon a building of frame or logs in the original form or style of the said Temple as near as may be; and

Whereas, it is further intended to purchase certain other adjacent grounds, wherein rest the remains of the Revolutionary veterans who died during the encampment of the Army near Newburgh, and cause the same to be properly inclosed, to the end that they may be perpetually kept and maintained as a burial ground; Therefore,

Resolved, by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That a joint select committee be created, to consist of five Senators to be appointed by the presiding officer of the Senate, and eight Representatives to be appointed by the Speaker of the House of Representatives whose duty it shall be to make, independently of itself or in connection with the trustees of Washington's Headquarters and the Citizens' Committee, all necessary arrangements for a befitting celebration of the centennial ceremonies commemorative of Washington's refusal to accept a crown, the proclamation of peace, the disbandment of the Army, and other notable Revolutionary events, to be held at Washington's Headquarters, in the city of Newburgh and State of New York, in the year eighteen hundred and eighty-three.

Joint Congressional select committee appointed.

[No. 41.] JOINT RESOLUTION accepting the offer of Doctor H. D. Cogswell of San Francisco, California, to donate to the Government of the United States an ornamental drinking-fountain, to be erected at his cost in the city of Washington.

Drinking-fountain presented to Washington, D. C., by H. D. Cogswell, of San Francisco.

Whereas, Doctor H. D. Cogswell, of San Francisco, California, has offered to erect, at his own expense, an ornamental drinking-fountain in the city of Washington, and to donate the same to the Government of the United States: Therefore,

Acceptance, by Commissioners of District of Columbia, authorized.

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the offer of the said H. D. Cogswell be, and the same is hereby, accepted, and authority is granted to erect the said drinking-fountain, under the supervision and direction of the Commissioners of the District of Columbia, upon such part of the government grounds in the city of Washington as the said Commissioners may designate.

SEC. 2. That the said Commissioners be, and they hereby are, authorized to provide and maintain such lanterns as may be necessary to light the said fountain at night, and also to use and supply the refrigerating apparatus connected with said fountain whenever they may think it proper to do so.
