[2.] Joint resolution for the relief of Isaac R. Hill. December 21, 1881.

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Treasury be, and he is hereby authorized and directed to pay out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated to Isaac R. Hill, the sum of one hundred and fifty dollars, for services as assistant Sergeant at Arms, to the House of Representatives during the month of December eighteen hundred eighty one Isaac R. Hill, payment to.

Approved, December 21, 1881.

[10.] Joint resolution in behalf of the American Company of Revisers of the New Testament for return and remission of duties. March 11, 1882.

Whereas, two thousand one hundred copies of the book known as the revision of the New Testament of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ printed by the University Presses of Oxford, and Cambridge in England, and being the joint and gratuitous work of two companies of translators, one in England and one in the United States, were sent, under the direction of the English Company of Revisers, to and for the use and distribution of the American Company of Revisers and were heretofore imported at the port of New York for or on behalf of the American Company of Revisers, and the duties paid thereon; and,

Remission and refund of duties paid on certain copies of the revised edition of the New Testament.

Whereas, the revision of the translation of the Old Testament Scriptures is now progressing under similar auspices, and the same is to be printed in a similar manner, and copies of them will be required for the use and distribution of the American Company of Revisers: Therefore,

Preamble.

Be it resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Treasury be, and is hereby, authorized and directed to ascertain the facts of such past and expected importations of the revisions of the Bible, and if he shall be satisfied that they are substantially as above set forth, then to refund and repay, out of any moneys in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to the American Company of Revisers, of which Reverend Doctor Philip Schaff of New York is chairman, and Reverend Doctor Henry Day of New York is secretary, through and by said officers the amount of duties heretofore paid upon the said books so imported; and that he be, and further is, authorized and directed to remit the duties upon, and to admit to entry free of duty or custom, the books containing the revision of the Old Testament which may be hereafter imported from England by or on behalf of the American Company of Revisers, for their use and distribution as above set forth, Provided, That future importations of said revision of the Bible for the purpose set forth in this act, shall not exceed two thousand copies.

Secretary of the Treasury, after satisfactory examination, to make payment to.

Philip Schaff, and Henry Day, chairman, and secretary, of American Company of Revisers, certain copies of revision of Old Testament, duty free, etc.

Proviso.

Approved, March 11, 1882.
