

May 8, 1886.

CHAP. 183.—An act granting an increase of pension to Charlotte D. Crocker.

Charlotte D.
Crocker.
Pension increased.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Interior be, and he is hereby, authorized and directed to increase the pension of Charlotte D. Crocker, widow of Brigadier-General Marcellus M. Crocker, from thirty dollars to fifty dollars per month, from and after the passage of this act.

Received by the President, April 27, 1886.

[NOTE BY THE DEPARTMENT OF STATE.—The foregoing act having been presented to the President of the United States for his approval, and not having been returned by him to the house of Congress in which it originated within the time prescribed by the Constitution of the United States, has become a law without his approval.]

May 8, 1886.

CHAP. 184.—An act granting a pension to Phillip D. Campbell.

Phillip D. Campbell.
Pension.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Interior is hereby authorized and directed to place on the pension-roll, subject to the restrictions and limitations of the pension laws, the name of Phillip D. Campbell, late of Company D, Twenty-second Regiment Pennsylvania Volunteers; and that the pension be paid to the legally constituted guardian of said Campbell, for his use and benefit.

Received by the President, April 27, 1886.

[NOTE BY THE DEPARTMENT OF STATE.—The foregoing act having been presented to the President of the United States for his approval, and not having been returned by him to the house of Congress in which it originated within the time prescribed by the Constitution of the United States, has become a law without his approval.]

May 8, 1886.

CHAP. 185.—An act granting a pension to Mrs. M. A. Bickerdyke.

Mrs. M. A. Bickerdyke.
Pension.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Interior is hereby authorized and directed to place on the pension-roll the name the name of Mrs. M. A. Bickerdyke, a noted Army nurse during the late War of the rebellion, and pay her a pension of twenty-five dollars per month.

Received by the President, April 27, 1886.

[NOTE BY THE DEPARTMENT OF STATE.—The foregoing act having been presented to the President of the United States for his approval, and not having been returned by him to the house of Congress in which it originated within the time prescribed by the Constitution of the United States, has become a law without his approval.]

May 8, 1886.

CHAP. 186.—An act granting a pension to Dr. J. F. Bruner.

J. F. Bruner.
Pension.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Interior is hereby authorized and directed to place on the pension-roll, subject to the restrictions and limitations of the pension laws, the name of Dr. J. F. Bruner, late assistant surgeon of the Seventh Regiment of Missouri Cavalry.

Received by the President, April 27, 1886.