

May 8, 1886.

CHAP. 219.—An act granting a pension to Lois Holt.

Lois Holt.
Pension.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Interior be, and he is hereby, authorized and directed to place on the pension-roll, at the rate of eight dollars per month, from and after the passage of this act, the name of Lois Holt, mother of Harvey Holt, late a private in Company I, Second Regiment New Hampshire Volunteers.

Received by the President, April 27, 1886.

[NOTE BY THE DEPARTMENT OF STATE.—The foregoing act having been presented to the President of the United States for his approval, and not having been returned by him to the house of Congress in which it originated within the time prescribed by the Constitution of the United States, has become a law without his approval.]

May 8, 1886.

CHAP. 220.—An act granting a pension to Mary G. Colby.

Mary G. Colby.
Pension.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Interior be, and he is hereby, authorized and directed to place on the pension-roll, at the rate of eight dollars per month, the name of Mary G. Colby, widow of Amos C. Colby, late a private in Company I, Third Regiment New Hampshire Volunteers, said pension to commence from and after the passage of this act.

Received by the President, April 27, 1886.

[NOTE BY THE DEPARTMENT OF STATE.—The foregoing act having been presented to the President of the United States for his approval, and not having been returned by him to the house of Congress in which it originated within the time prescribed by the Constitution of the United States, has become a law without his approval.]

May 8, 1886.

CHAP. 221.—An act granting a pension to Margaret Flaherty.

Margaret Flaherty.
Pension.

Vol. 23, p. 701.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Interior be, and he is hereby, authorized and directed to place on the pension-roll, at the rate of eight dollars per month, the name of Margaret Flaherty, dependent stepmother of Bartlett Flaherty, late a private in Company F, Thirty-first Maine Volunteers, said pension to commence March third, eighteen hundred and eighty-five.

Received by the President, April 27, 1886.

[NOTE BY THE DEPARTMENT OF STATE.—The foregoing act having been presented to the President of the United States for his approval, and not having been returned by him to the house of Congress in which it originated within the time prescribed by the Constitution of the United States, has become a law without his approval.]

May 8, 1886.

CHAP. 222.—An act granting a pension to Margaret Kearns.

Margaret Kearns.
Pension.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Interior be, and he is hereby, authorized and directed to place on the pension-roll, subject to the provisions and limitations of the pension laws, the name of Margaret Kearns, mother of James Kearns, late a sergeant of Company G, Ninety-fourth New York Infantry.

Received by the President, April 27, 1886.