AUTHENTICATED
U.S. GOVERNMENT
INFORMATION
GPO

[NOTE BY THE DEPARTMENT OF STATE.—The foregoing act having been presented to the President of the United States for his approval, and not having been returned by him to the house of Congress in which it originated within the time prescribed by the Constitution of the United States, has become a law without his approval.]

CHAP. 272.—An act granting a pension to Algernon S. Flagg. May 8, 1886.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Interior be, and he hereby is, authorized and directed to place on the pension-roll, subject to the provisions and limitations of the pension laws, the name of Algernon S. Flagg, late of Company D, Thirty-seventh Massachusetts Volunteers. Algernon S. Flagg. Pension.

Received by the President, April 27, 1886.

[NOTE BY THE DEPARTMENT OF STATE.—The foregoing act having been presented to the President of the United States for his approval, and not having been returned by him to the house of Congress in which it originated within the time prescribed by the Constitution of the United States, has become a law without his approval.]

CHAP. 273.—An act granting a pension to Sophia F. Bixby. May 8, 1886.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Interior be, and he hereby is, authorized and directed to place on the pension-roll, subject to the provisions and limitations of the pension laws, the name of Sophia F. Bixby, mother of George A. Bixby, late of Company H, Twenty-fifth Massachusetts Volunteers. Sophia F. Bixby. Pension.

Received by the President, April 27, 1886.

[NOTE BY THE DEPARTMENT OF STATE.—The foregoing act having been presented to the President of the United States for his approval, and not having been returned by him to the house of Congress in which it originated within the time prescribed by the Constitution of the United States, has become a law without his approval.]

CHAP. 274.—An act granting a pension to Rachel W. Heard. May 8, 1886.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Interior be, and he is hereby, authorized and directed to place on the pension-roll, subject to the provisions and limitations of the pension laws, the name of Rachel W. Heard, widow of Nathan Heard, a second lieutenant in the service of the United States in the war of eighteen hundred and twelve. Rachel W. Heard. Pension.

Received by the President, April 27, 1886.

[NOTE BY THE DEPARTMENT OF STATE.—The foregoing act having been presented to the President of the United States for his approval, and not having been returned by him to the house of Congress in which it originated within the time prescribed by the Constitution of the United States, has become a law without his approval.]