

pension-roll, subject to the provisions and limitations of the pension laws, the name of Captain Anthony Harsel, late of Company D, Forty-eighth Regiment Missouri Enrolled Militia.

Received by the President, April 27, 1886.

[NOTE BY THE DEPARTMENT OF STATE.—The foregoing act having been presented to the President of the United States for his approval, and not having been returned by him to the house of Congress in which it originated within the time prescribed by the Constitution of the United States, has become a law without his approval.]

CHAP. 279.—An act increasing the pension of John P. Brinegar.

May 8, 1886.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Interior be, and he is hereby, authorized and directed to increase the pension of John P. Brinegar, late a Corporal of Company E, Fourth Regiment of Kentucky Volunteers, to forty dollars per month (certificate numbered one hundred and fourteen thousand seven hundred and sixty-seven).

John P. Brinegar.
Pension increased.

Received by the President, April 27, 1886.

[NOTE BY THE DEPARTMENT OF STATE.—The foregoing act having been presented to the President of the United States for his approval, and not having been returned by him to the house of Congress in which it originated within the time prescribed by the Constitution of the United States, has become a law without his approval.]

CHAP. 280.—An act granting a pension to Frank Lightner

May 8, 1886.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Interior is hereby authorized and directed to place on the pension-roll, subject to the restrictions and limitations of the pension laws, the name of Frank Lightner, late of Company C, Sixty-fifth Regiment United States Colored Troops.

Frank Lightner.
Pension.

Received by the President, April 27, 1886.

[NOTE BY THE DEPARTMENT OF STATE.—The foregoing act having been presented to the President of the United States for his approval, and not having been returned by him to the house of Congress in which it originated within the time prescribed by the Constitution of the United States, has become a law without his approval.]

CHAP. 281.—An act granting a pension to Mary E. Snow.

May 8, 1886.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Interior be, and hereby is, authorized and directed to place on the pension-roll, subject to the provisions and limitations of the pension laws, the name of Mary E. Snow, widow of Thomas Snow, late a Captain in the Second New Hampshire Regiment.

Mary E. Snow.
Pension.

Received by the President, April 27, 1886.

[NOTE BY THE DEPARTMENT OF STATE.—The foregoing act having been presented to the President of the United States for his approval, and not having been returned by him to the House of Congress in which it originated within the time prescribed by the Constitution of the United States, has become a law without his approval.]