AUTHENTICATED
U.S. GOVERNMENT
INFORMATION
GPO

CHAP. 369.—An act granting a pension to Isom Wilkerson. May 22, 1886.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Interior be, and he is hereby, authorized and directed to place on the pension-roll, subject to the provisions and limitations of the pension laws, the name of Isom Wilkerson, late of Company I, Second California Cavalry Volunteers.

Isom Wilkerson. Pension.

Approved, May 22, 1886.

CHAP. 370.—An act granting a pension to Patrick A. Callanan. May 22, 1886.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Interior be, and he is hereby, authorized and directed to place on the pension-roll, subject to the provisions and limitations of the pension laws, the name of Patrick A. Callanan, late a member of the First Massachusetts Heavy Artillery.

Patrick A. Callanan. Pension.

Approved, May 22, 1886.

CHAP. 371.—An act for the relief of Rebecca E. Haskin. May 22, 1886.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Interior be, and he is hereby, authorized and directed to pay to Rebecca E. Haskin, widow of Lieutenant-Colonel Joseph A. Haskin, United States Army, the pension provided by law for the widow of a lieutenant-colonel in the United States Army, in lieu of the pension she is now receiving.

Rebecca E. Haskin. Pension increased.

Approved, May 22, 1886.

CHAP. 372.—An act granting a pension to Ann Smith. May 22, 1886.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Interior be, and he is hereby, authorized and directed to place on the pension-roll, subject to the provisions and limitations of the pension laws, the name of Ann Smith, widow of Levi Smith, late a private in Company A, Third Heavy Artillery, in the war of the rebellion.

Ann Smith. Pension.

Approved, May 22, 1886.

CHAP. 373.—An act for the relief of George Titus. May 24, 1886.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Interior be, and he is hereby, authorized and directed to place on the pension-roll, subject to the provisions and limitations of the pension laws, the name of George Titus, dependent father of Josiah C. Titus, late first lieutenant of Company D, Sixty-second Illinois Volunteers, and to pay George Titus the amount that would have been paid to Nancy Titus, his wife, on a certificate numbered two hundred and three thousand eight hundred and seventy-seven, granted January tenth, eighteen hundred and eighty-four, issued to her a few days after her death, as dependent mother of Josiah C. Titus, late first lieutenant of Company D, Sixty-second Illinois Volunteers.

George Titus. Pension. Also to be paid pension granted to his wife.

Approved, May 24, 1886.