AUTHENTICATED
U.S. GOVERNMENT
INFORMATION
GPO

June 1, 1886.

CHAP. 414.—An act for the relief of Mary Hill.

Mary Hill. Pension.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Interior be directed to place the name of Mary Hill, a nurse in the Army, on the pension-roll, at the rate of twenty-five dollars per month

Approved, June 1, 1886.

June 1, 1886.

CHAP. 415.—An act granting a pension to Elizabeth B. Bell.

Elizabeth B. Bell. Pension.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Interior be, and he is hereby, authorized and directed to place on the pension-roll, subject to the provisions and limitations of the pension laws, the name of Elizabeth B. Bell, widow of Lieutenant V. Bradford Bell, deceased, late of the Nineteenth Illinois Infantry Volunteers.

Approved, June 1, 1886.

June 16, 1886.

CHAP. 418.—An act for the relief of Chester A. Arthur and William H. Robertson, late collectors of the customs of the district of the city of New York.

Chester A. Arthur, allowance to, in accounts as collector, New York City.

William H. Robertson, allowance to, in accounts as collector at New York City.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the proper accounting officers be, and they are hereby, authorized and directed to allow Chester A. Arthur, collector of the district of the city of New York, in settlement of his accounts, a credit for the sum of eight thousand four hundred and thirty-six dollars and eighty-eight cents, the same being for the sum of five thousand dollars in gold coin, a sum now charged to the said Collector Arthur, which was stolen or disappeared from the office of the then cashier of the custom-house at New York, January twenty-first, eighteen hundred and seventy-six, without the default or negligence of said collector, or of the late William D. Robinson, cashier; and for the sum of three thousand four hundred and thirty-six dollars and eighty-eight cents, the amount of an apparent discrepancy in account of proceeds of sales of unclaimed goods, which is unexplained by reason of the death of Samuel G. Ogden, late auditor of the custom-house, who had charge of such account and personally received and disbursed all moneys thereon during his whole term of service of thirty-six years. And that the proper accounting officers be, and they are hereby, authorized and directed to allow William H. Robertson, collector of the district of the city of New York, in settlement of his account, a credit for the sum of thirteen thousand and ninety-four dollars, the same being a sum now charged to the said Collector Robertson, which was stolen or disappeared from the office of the cashier of the custom-house at New York, without the default or negligence of said collector, or of the late James Hoffman, cashier.

Approved, June 16, 1886.

June 16, 1886.

CHAP. 419.—An act for the relief of John Fraser.

John Fraser. Payment for services as Acting Supervising Architect of the Treasury.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the sum of nine hundred and fourteen dollars and twenty cents be, and the same hereby is, appropriated, out of any moneys in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, for payment in full to John Fraser for services as Acting Supervising Architect of the Treasury during eighteen hundred and seventy-eight and eighteen hundred and seventy-nine.

Approved, June 16, 1886.