CHAP. 904.—An act for the relief of William J. Smith, late surveyor of customs for the port of Memphis, State of Tennessee. August 4, 1886.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That in the settlement of the accounts of William J. Smith, formerly surveyor of customs at the port of Memphis, State of Tennessee, the proper accounting officers of the Treasury be, and are hereby, authorized and directed to credit the said William J. Smith with the sum of two thousand and four dollars and ninety-nine cents in the settlement of his accounts as late surveyor of customs, on account of the embezzlement and defalcation of N. D. Smith, deputy to the said surveyor, he being no relative, and it clearly appearing that the embezzlement and defalcation were no fault of the surveyor.

William J. Smith.

Credit to be made in accounts of, for money embezzled.

Approved, August 4, 1886.

CHAP. 905.—An act to compensate physicians for services rendered under an order of the United States court of the northern district of Alabama. August 4, 1886.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Treasury be, and is hereby, authorized and directed to pay, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, the sum of four hundred dollars, jointly, to the following physicians: A. R. Erskine, J. J. Dement, H. W. Bassett, and A. R. Burnett; said sum of money to be received by said physicians, jointly, as full compensation for all services rendered by them, pursuant to an order of the judge of the circuit court of the northern district of Alabama, in the conspiracy case in which F. M. Noogin and Berry O. Wood are defendants.

A. R. Erskine, J. J. Dement, H. W. Bassett, and A. R. Burnett.
