

RESOLUTIONS.

[No. 13.] Joint resolution for the relief of William L. Dunlop, trustee.

May 26, 1886.

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the United States, in favor of the said William L. Dunlop, of the District of Columbia, as trustee of the estate of George Lowry, late of said District, deceased, his heirs and assigns, hereby surrender, abandon, and forever release all right or claim they may have, by reason of any escheat, to any part of lot numbered thirteen, in square numbered seventy-five, in the city of Washington, in the District of Columbia, as the same is known and distinguished on the plan or plat of said city and included in the following lines and bounds, to wit: Beginning for the same at a point on the line of the southwest side of Pennsylvania avenue seventy-nine feet three inches from the stone planted at the northwest corner of the square, and running thence along the line of Pennsylvania avenue toward said corner-stone, twenty feet; thence at right angles to the avenue back to an alley nine feet wide, heretofore laid off in a lease to Thomas Y. Sprogell; thence with the line of said alley due east till it intersects with said Sprogell's line; thence with said Sprogell's line to the place of beginning, with the free use and privilege of the said alley of nine feet in width, and with the brick dwelling-house and buildings thereon.

Approved, May 26, 1886.

William L. Dunlop, trustee.

Release of right of United States in lot 13, square 75, Washington City, to.

Description.

[No. 14.] Joint resolution for the relief of the estate of the late James G. Wintersmith, late Doorkeeper of the House of Representatives

June 12, 1886.

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Clerk of the House be, and he is hereby, authorized to pay, and the accounting officers of the Treasury to pass the said account, to the legal representatives of the late James G. Wintersmith, late Doorkeeper of the House of Representatives, one year's salary as Doorkeeper of the House of Representatives, and also the expenses of the last sickness and expenses of burial, not exceeding five hundred dollars for said burial, of the said Wintersmith.

Received by the President, June 12, 1886.

James G. Wintersmith.

Payment of one year's salary as Doorkeeper House of Representatives to legal representatives of.

[NOTE BY THE DEPARTMENT OF STATE.—The foregoing act having been presented to the President of the United States for his approval, and not having been returned by him to the House of Congress in which it originated within the time prescribed by the Constitution of the United States, has become a law without his approval.]