

CHAP. 231.—An act granting a pension to Elizabeth M. King.

Feb. 23, 1887.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Interior be, and he is hereby, authorized and directed to place on the pension-roll, subject to the provisions and limitations of the pension laws, the name of Elizabeth M. King, mother of Dudley King, late a lieutenant of Company C, Eighty-ninth Regiment Ohio Volunteers, during the war for the suppression of the rebellion

Elizabeth M.
King.
Pension.

Approved, February 23, 1887.

CHAP. 232.—An act granting a pension to Frederick Richmond.

Feb. 23, 1887.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Interior be, and he is hereby, authorized and directed to place on the pension-roll, subject to the provisions and limitations of the pension laws, the name of Frederick Richmond, late a private in Company B, Thirty-sixth Regiment Ohio Volunteers, now insane, payment of pension to be made to his legally constituted guardian.

Frederick Richmond.
Pension.

Approved, February 23, 1887.

CHAP. 233.—An act for the relief of Frances W. Dyer.

Feb. 23, 1887.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Treasury be, and he is hereby, authorized and directed to pay, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, the sum of one hundred dollars to Frances W. Dyer, administratrix of the estate of William P. Dyer, late of Belfast, in the State of Maine, deceased; the same being the amount deposited with the clerk of the United States court for the district of Alabama by said William P. Dyer on his recognizance to appear and answer to a suit for an alleged violation of section fifty-three hundred and forty-seven of the Revised Statutes of the United States, in which said suit the entry of nolle prosequi was made, and the said sum of one hundred dollars was covered into the Treasury of the United States.

Frances W. Dyer,
administratrix.
Payment to.

Approved, February 23, 1887.

CHAP. 234.—An act for the relief of Pryor N. Lea.

Feb. 23, 1887.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Treasury be, and he is hereby, directed to cause to be paid to Pryor N. Lea, the sum of one thousand nine hundred and nineteen dollars, in full discharge of his claim against the Government of the United States for rescuing three United States soldiers from a sand-bar in the Mississippi River on the first day of January, eighteen hundred and sixty-four, and for board, medical aid, and nursing given them while unable to return to their command, and also for board furnished other United States soldiers while guarding said sick.

Pryor N. Lea.
Payment to.

Approved, February 23, 1887.