AUTHENTICATED
U.S. GOVERNMENT
INFORMATION
GPO

September 25, 1888.

CHAP. 1048.—An act granting a pension to Pierre Bottineau.

Pierre Bottineau. Pension.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Interior be, and he is hereby, authorized and directed to place on the pension-roll, subject to the provisions and limitations of the pension laws, the name of Pierre Bottineau, and pay him a pension at the rate of twenty-five dollars per month.

Approved, September 26, 1888.

September 26, 1888.

CHAP. 1049.—An act granting a pension to Mary Sturgess.

Mary Sturgess. Pension.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Interior be, and he is hereby, authorized and directed to place on the pension-roll, subject to the provisions and limitations of the pension laws, the name of Mary Sturgess, a volunteer nurse in the late war, and pay her a pension at the rate of twenty-five dollars per month.

Approved, September 26, 1888.

September 26, 1888.

CHAP. 1050.—An act granting a pension to James McDonald.

James McDonald. Pension.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Interior be, and he hereby is, authorized and directed to place on the pension-roll, subject to the provisions and limitations of the pension laws, the name of James McDonald, assistant wagon-master, Quartermaster's Department, whose invalid pension claim, numbered one hundred and sixty-three thousand six hundred and twenty-one, was rejected in the Pension Office on the ground that applicant was a civilian employee when he received the injury which caused the amputation of his leg, and to pay him a pension at the same rate as if he had been a regularly enlisted soldier.

Approved, September, 26, 1888.

September 26, 1888.

CHAP. 1051.—An act granting a pension to Mrs. Mary Morrison Elliott.

Mary Morrison Elliott. Pension.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Interior be, and he is hereby, authorized and directed to place on the pension-roll, subject to the provisions and limitations of the pension laws, the name of Mrs. Mary Morrison Elliott, who was a volunteer nurse during the war of the rebellion, and pay her a pension at the rate of twelve dollars per month.

Approved, September 26, 1888.

September 26, 1888.

CHAP. 1052.—An act granting a pension to Patrick Welch.

Patrick Welch. Pension.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Interior be, and he is hereby, authorized and directed to place on the pension-roll, subject to the provisions and limitations of the pension laws, the name of Patrick Welch, late of the United States Navy, war of the rebellion.

Approved, September 26, 1888.